

WOMAN FOUND MURDERED IN Y. W. C. A. HOTEL

Widow Bludgeoned and Attacked in Her Small Room

Chicago, May 9.—(AP)—Mrs. Lillian Guild, 55-year-old widow and gift shop manager, was found bludgeoned to death today in her small room in the Y. W. C. A. hotel on Michigan avenue.

Dr. W. T. Harsh, Jr., said Mrs. Guild apparently had been criminally assaulted.

Chief of Detectives John L. Sullivan announced he had found a quantity of obscene pictures and literature of other erotica in the room of a boiler attendant in the building and ordered a search for the man.

Near the nude body which lay on the floor, was a heavy slab of concrete, covered with blood, with which police said the woman had been beaten to death.

A kimono and a pillow had been placed over her head. The room gave evidence of a terrific struggle, but hotel employees said they had heard no sounds during the night.

The details of the assault and murder, the police said, bore a similarity to the recent sensational slaying of Mrs. Nancy Titterton in New York.

Nightgown In Shreds

The victim was a native of Attleboro, Mass. Her silk nightgown, hung in shreds from her shoulders. The bed clothing and rug were spattered with blood, as was the weapon. The bludgeon, was on long in shape, nearly seven inches long and five inches through at its thickest point. At one end it had been shaped to provide a handhold for its wielder. The police said it weighed six pounds.

On the bed were two suitcases, one of which Chief of Detectives John L. Sullivan said had been ransacked.

There was no fire escape opening onto the room, but Chief Sullivan said he believed the assailant had swung down catkins from a fire escape which passed over the one window in the room.

Harriet McWilliams, a negro maid, found the body when she entered to clean the room.

Managed Gift Shop

The bludgeon had been cut into an "L" shape so that it could be clasped in the hand. The victim had been struck on the right temple.

Hotel officials said Mrs. Guild was the manager of a gift shop in a large hotel nearby.

Police set out first to learn what Mrs. Guild's movements were last night. They called in two men employed in the hotel, Sylvester Ciskoski, night watchman, and Fritz Franzen, maintenance man.

Ciskoski serves as night clerk from 11 P. M. until 7:30 A. M. Miss Virginia McDonald, secretary of the institution, said Ciskoski did not report hearing any alarming sounds during the night when she took over the desk at 7:30 A. M.

Nearby Rooms Occupied

Rooms to the west of Mrs. Guild's quarters, and one directly across the hall, were occupied, one by Miss Doris Tait, Greenville, Pa., and the second by Miss N. Cairns, Galesburg, Ill. Neither reported any disturbance. They were not in the hotel when the maid made her discovery.

Miss Cairns, a school teacher, went to the hotel about 10 o'clock last night, she said and went to bed about 11. At 12 she was awakened by noises, but decided they emanated from a movie exchange to the rear of the hotel, where a crew of workmen was at work changing films from one container to another.

She went back to sleep, she said, and heard nothing more, although only a few feet separated her from the room where Mrs. Guild was slain.

Maj. Lester Wheeler, Brother-in-Law Mrs. F. Rosbrook, is Dead

Friday, Mrs. F. J. Rosbrook received a telegram informing her of the death of her brother-in-law, Major Lester Wheeler, who passed away Friday at Fort Huachuca, Arizona, where he had been stationed since last August. He is survived by his wife and three children.

Mrs. Wheeler was the daughter of Dr. Wilcox of Amboy. Major Wheeler will be buried in Arlington National cemetery at Washington, D. C. The resting place of many distinguished men. He was formerly of Peoria, Ill.

SPECIAL ELGIN COIN

Washington.—The house passed and sent to the senate a bill by Rep. Reed (R-Ill.) authorizing the coinage of specially designed 50 cent pieces to commemorate the founding of Elgin, Ill.

Sheriff Drank Beer With Public Enemy

Sheriff James O'Reilly of Lucas county, Ohio, is having a big laugh here—but it's at his own expense. For the sheriff has revealed that he drank beer in Toledo with Harry Campbell, last of the Barker-Karpis gang suspects to be arrested, under the impression that Campbell was "Bob Miller." To further dent the sheriff's sleuthing reputation, a picture of Campbell as "wanted" had been hanging in the county jail for months.

THREE MURDERS ARE CHARGED TO E. ST. LOUISIAN

Leonard Moore, Aged 18, Implicated by Man Now in Prison

East St. Louis, Ill., May 9.—(AP)—Leonard Moore, 18 years old, was arrested today on warrants charging him with three murders in two Illinois holdups.

Moore, sought since last December, was charged in one warrant with the murder of William Ziems, 74-year-old Kankakee grocer, who was beaten to death in a $2 robbery last Nov. 4.

Chief of Detectives George Byrnes said Albert Ross, 28 years old, now serving a sentence of 150 years at Joliet for the killing of Ziems, had implicated Moore.

Admits Presence

Byrnes reported Moore had made a written statement in which he admitted he was Ross' companion in the holdup but contended it was Ross who fatally wounded the grocer with a blow on the head with a piece of pipe.

The youth, however, Byrnes said, denied participation in the slaying of the Burmeister brothers. They were shot to death when they answered a call to take gasoline to an automobile four miles west of Tuscola.

Since the slaying of Ziems, two East St. Louis detectives, Tom Logan, who is acquainted with Moore, and August Mann, had maintained a constant search for him because his father, Green Moore, a horse and mule buyer, resides here.

They saw him, carrying a suitcase, in the stockyards district of the city and placed him under arrest. He was unarmed.

Moore told the detectives he had just come into East St. Louis on a freight train from Chicago, where he had been employed at the Y. M. C. A. hotel.

OFFICERS SEE TANKS

Rock Island.—New high speed army tank cars and tractor-equipped field artillery were demonstrated to members of the Illinois Department Reserve Officers' Association at their convention. The annual election of officers was scheduled for today.

Appropriation Ordinance Passed By Council Last Evening Despite Continued Objection of Com. Vaile

The city's annual appropriation ordinance as amended, subject of warm debate and bitterly opposed by Commissioner Joe E. Vaile of the street department, who threatened court action to force the council to appropriate more money for his department, was passed at last evening's regular weekly session without hesitation.

Commissioner Vaile continued his objection to the measure by voting in the negative when the ordinance was presented for passage. Commissioners Tyler and Lenox voted with Mayor Slothower for the adoption of the measure.

The commissioner of streets voted against the passage of the ordinance in face of the adoption of two resolutions which permitted his department to expend the sum of $8,900 of the city's gasoline tax refund this season on the improvement

DECISION IS AGAINST ILL. PENSION LAW

Government Refuses Share Under Law Horner Vetoed

Springfield, Ill., May 9.—(AP)—The Federal Social Security Board today rejected the Illinois old age assistance law because it does not provide sufficient state supervision to meet federal requirements for financial participation.

John G. Winant, chairman of the board, advised Gov. Horner of the decision by letter.

He explained that approval would be withheld until the law was amended.

The decision prevents aged indigents from receiving more than a maximum of $15 a month, the state's share. The original plan was for $30 a month, with the federal treasury to pay half the cost.

Horner said he would send the letter to the legislature next week.

To Second Session

It was understood the pension changes would be placed before the second session as a question of relief.

Winant, former governor of New Hampshire, also wrote the governor that federal aid in the Illinois blind and children's pensions would be possible with slight changes in the present laws.

The board's position on all points on the act was parallel to the governor's when he vetoed the local administration bill of the old age aid plan Feb. 4, but Horner made no reference to this in his brief comment today.

"I will transmit this letter to the

SOME ODDITIES IN TODAY'S A. P. WORLD NEWS REPORT

PICTURE WON ELECTION.

Fairbanks, Alaska, May 9.—(AP)—Campaigning for the Republican senatorial nomination, Thomas J. DeVane advertised that he had no picture of himself but was "just as homely as any candidate for this nomination." He ran 12 votes behind the victor, whose ads carried a two-column photograph.

TO AVOID EMBARRASSMENT.

Baton Rouge, La., May 9.—(AP)—Lest there come another embarrassing moment like the time the late Huey Long shocked the commander of a German cruiser by receiving him in green silk pajamas, Governor-elect Richard Leche has named a naval staff to advise him on nautical niceties. The staff will tell him when to wear what, he said.

BOUGHT HER ONE MEAL.

Chicago, May 9.—(AP)—Mrs. Olive Meehan, 22, a dancer, obtained a divorce from William Meehan, 24, on a desertion charge. She testified they were married at 6:30 A. M. on April 25, 1935, in Waukegan, and that after they had breakfasted in a restaurant her husband disappeared.

She said he paid the check first, though.

DOGS STEAL CHINA.

Alton, Ill., May 9.—(AP)—When the stray dogs of Alton started stealing china service it was too much—so today the police undertook a strict quarantine against ownerless animals.

Mrs. August P. Kaeshamer said she set out a plate of food for the family dog but before he could reach the tid bits a strange sound appeared, gulped the food, seized the plate in his teeth and ran.

AMERICAN AIDE TO HAILE MAKES SAFE DEPARTURE

Train Bearing Iowa Man Attacked by Ethiopian Tribesmen

Djibouti, French Somaliland, May 9.—(AP)—John H. Spencer, American former adviser to Emperor Haile Selassie, followed other officials in the exodus from Addis Ababa today, resting here after a narrow escape from unruly tribesmen.

The train on which Spencer rode from the former imperial Ethiopian capital to this French port was attacked by a band of natives about 10 miles outside of Addis Ababa. A detachment of French Senegalese infantrymen who were on the train, returning to Dire-dawa, returned the fire of the tribesmen and drove the natives off before they were able to inflict any serious damage on the train.

Spencer, 30-year-old former resident of Grinnell, Iowa, who had advised Haile Selassie on political questions since January, said he intended to return to the United States.

HAILE TO LONDON

Jerusalem, May 9.—(AP)—Haile Selassie, fugitive emperor of Ethiopia, asked today in his first public statement in exile, that justice be done his country.

Said the emperor: "The nation which placed its complete faith in the League of Nations—of which Ethiopia still is a member—cannot believe that the league will not seek reparation against another member which has been condemned as an aggressor."

"We ask that justice be done to protect a weak nation against a stronger."

The emperor intends to go to London in three or four days, one of the imperial party said today.

Empress Mennen, who arrived here yesterday with the Negus, their children and closest followers, will remain in the Holy Land while the emperor proceeds to Europe.

EYES ON BRITAIN

Geneva, May 9.—(AP)—The foreign ministers of five northern European countries, in a conference today, decided to observe Great Britain's policy before determining their own collective stand concerning the continuance of sanctions against Italy.

The ministers represented Norway, Sweden, Denmark, The Netherlands, and Finland.

They frowned upon Mussolini's conquest of Ethiopia and voiced the opinion that the League of Nations should show a strong attitude opposed to aggression in order to uphold its authority.

They made no decisions, however, pending determination as to what Great Britain intends to do. An official league report on sanctions indicated that during March the imports by 19 countries from Italy were $1,802,000.

Mahan Pleads Guilty Today

Tacoma, Wash., May 9.—(AP)—William Mahan, scar-faced ex-convict, shown above with federal agents who captured him in San Francisco, pleaded guilty today in federal court to the $200,000 kidnaping of George Meyerhauser, 9-year-old lumber fortune heir.

Federal Judge E. E. Cushman sentenced Mahan to 60 years on each of two counts, and decreed the sentences should run concurrent. The sentence was to McNeil Island penitentiary, in Puget Sound near here.

Mahan declined to make any statement. He had also refused the offer by the court to appoint an attorney to represent him.

McNeil Island is only about an hour away by bus and boat and Mahan could be taken there this afternoon. Warden P. Swope of the penitentiary came here last night to confer with department of justice agents.

The United States Attorney General at Washington will determine later whether Mahan will remain there or be transferred to Alcatraz or Leavenworth penitentiary.

POLICE RADIO FOR DIXON IS VERY PROBABLE

Commissioner Tyler Favors Installation of System

The Dixon police department, in keeping with the police of having the latest and best equipment for police purposes, will in all probability have one of the latest radio systems installed during the coming summer.

Commissioner Cal G. Tyler of the department of public health and safety and Chief of Police J. D. Van Bibber were in conference last evening, discussing the installation of radio in the local police department.

Commissioner Tyler announced today that his plans at present are favorable for the installation of radio as soon as possible.

Mr. Tyler has been inspecting several police radio systems it was learned and is favorable to a unit which will be similar to the system now being installed by the state highway police department.

It is possible that a unit which will bring radio messages from other cities, may also be installed, providing a double system. This, however, will depend upon the inspection of radio systems now in use in other Illinois police departments with a view of affording the greatest efficiency as well as the latest design of police radio.

At the present, the plan is for a receiving unit only and it is very doubtful whether a sending system will be used, this requiring a licensed operator, which would add materially to the expense.

With the close access to the new station, now under construction east of Sterling on the Lincoln highway, it is not considered necessary for the local police radio to be equipped for broadcast purposes as any reports to be broadcast could be sent out of the state station at Sterling.

Mahan Equipped

State Highway Patrolman Edward Mahan of this city spent yesterday in Springfield and returned to Dixon last evening with one of the new radio equipped motorcycles. He is the first officer in the northwest district to be equipped with a radio.

Princeton Editor Injured In Crash On His Way South

(Telegraph Special Service)

Princeton, May 9.—H. U. Bailey, publisher of the Bureau County Republican, was injured in an automobile accident which occurred at Rolla, Mo., 100 miles southwest of St. Louis Friday.

Mr. Bailey and a friend, Martin Nelson of Bureau, were enroute from Princeton to Oklahoma City, Okla., on a business trip. Mr. Nelson was driving at the time of the accident, the details of which were not learned here, but Mr. Bailey dislocated two ribs and his collar bone. He was taken to the Rolla hospital for treatment. He will be confined at the hospital for two weeks before his condition will warrant his return to Princeton.

TERSE ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED IN DIXON DURING DAY

DANDELIONS PLENTIFUL

The spring dandelion crop appears to be at its height at this particular season and the warm days have brought forth an abundance of blossom. A citizen suggested today, the mowing of all yards as a means of destroying the bumper crop which is promised if the blossoms are permitted to go to seed.

PURCHASED ALLEY

Announcement was made Friday of the purchase of the five-foot private alley east of the site of the new Lee theater by L. G. Rorer, manager of the theater company. The purchase was from Mrs. Z. W. Moss of this city and her sister, Mrs. John M. Stager of Sterling.

TO PREACHERS' COLLEGE

Rev. Fr. and Mrs. B. Norman Burke of St. Luke's Episcopal church, will leave tomorrow morning for Washington, D. C., where the former will attend a ten-day session of the College of Preachers at the Washington Cathedral. The invitation to attend this college is the second the Dixon pastor has received.

ORDERED TO LEAVE

Charles A. Seaman of Joliet was taken to the Northwest corner by Police Chief J. D. Van Bibber yesterday afternoon at 3:30 and ordered to leave Dixon, after he had been arrested for begging money on the streets. He did not obey and at 4:30 Patrolman Harry Fischer took Seaman to the police station and relieved him of two large bottles of bay rum. Arraigned before Justice Terrill in police court this morning on a vagrancy charge, Seaman was sent to the county jail in default of a fine of $25 and costs.

MAY-DECEMBER UNION BROKEN UP BY SHOTGUN

Illinois Youth of 18, Iowa Woman, Aged 30, Are Jailed

Elkader, Iowa, May 9.—(AP)—Sheriff L. J. Palas announced today that Mrs. Pearl Shines, 30, and her 18-year-old lover, Maynard Lenox, signed new confessions after a night of questioning which implicated four other persons in the slaying of Dan Shine, 60, a farmer the woman married last week.

"Lenox also confessed," the sheriff said, "that he fired the actual shot which killed the old man after the murder gang gave him a beating."

Three persons named by Shine's red-haired widow and her harmonica playing sweetheart were in jail. They were Jim Hines, 30, an uncle of Mrs. Shine; Howard Hines, 23, a cousin; and Mrs. Minnie Hines, 49, her aunt and the wife of Jim Hines. A fourth person implicated, Albert (Deke) Cornwell, 37, of Manchester also was held.

Was Uncle's Idea.

"Both confessed," the sheriff said, "that Jim Hines was the brains of the plot, that it was his idea to have his twice before-married niece wed Dan Shine, get him to deed his property over to her and kill the old man."

Shine's body was found in an upstairs closet of his home Wednesday. Part of his head had been torn off by a shotgun blast. His right hand clutched a piece of string which had been fastened to the trigger.

Sheriff Palas said Lenox had signed a statement saying Mrs. Shine disliked her elderly husband and had talked of killing him so she could marry Lenox.

Deeded Her His Farm.

"Toward evening Tuesday," the youth was quoted, "she got the gun. I stayed out of the front room and soon the gun went bang. I helped her with him and tied the string up in the closet. We went back

Directed Verdict of Not Guilty Will Be Asked for Three Men on Trial for St. Charles Bank Theft

Chicago, May 9.—(AP)—Attorneys defending the three men on trial for the $15,000 robbery of the St. Charles National bank last January 31 prepared today to make a motion for a directed verdict when the trial is resumed on Monday in the Federal court of Judge Philip L. Sullivan.

On trial are Fred Hansen, Philip Dimenza and Sam Bongiorno. Five others are under indictment. Three turned government witnesses and have been granted separate trials. Another pleaded guilty and the eighth is a fugitive.

The trial was recessed over the week-end after the government closed its case yesterday. Capt. Daniel Gilbert, state's attorney's investigator, was the last witness for the prosecution. He identified confessions he said were signed by the three defendants.

James Kobart, 40, a former Will county deputy sheriff who is under indictment, testified that the robber gang spent the night before the raid in his home, making gags and loading guns. They returned the next morning with bags of money bearing stickers of the bank, he said.

HINDENBURG SAILS OCEAN IN 64 HOURS

Dirigible Completed Record Voyage at 4:10 This Morn

(Copyright, 1936 by The Associated Press)

Lakehurst, N. J., May 9.—The Hindenburg, newest and largest of the Zeppelins, completed its first trip across the North Atlantic today in record time for lighter-than-air craft.

The giant ship was moored at the naval air base here at 4:10 A. M. Central Standard time—61 hours and 53 minutes after it left its home port of Friedrichshafen, Germany.

Following the shipping lane across the Atlantic, the Hindenburg did not pass over American land until it skirted Long Island, followed Ambrose channel into New York harbor and cruised over New York City.

It was sighted over New York at 3 A. M. (CST), just as dawn was lighting the sky. Thousands of early risers cheered, and ships tied down their whistles.

Swastika Visible

After cruising over Manhattan 11 minutes, the 803-foot ship circled south directly for Lakehurst. The

Eckener Ignored

Berlin, May 9.—(AP)—With jubilant headlines reading "Hindenburg Makes America Forget Presidential Elections" and "Sensation for U. S. A." German newspapers devoted their front pages nearly exclusively to the Zeppelin's flight.

The German news bureau called the maneuvers of the American landing crew "an exceptional model" and described the enthusiastic reception proudly. Much space was devoted to praise of the American preparations for the ship's landing.

The issue of Dr. Hugo Eckener, president of the Zeppelin Company, was not, however, mentioned in the accounts.

red and black of a large Nazi swastika was visible on the vertical fin aft.

A dozen or more airplanes circled far above. As the nose of the Zeppelin dipped for the ground, the moon was still in the sky, and a brilliant red sun was just coming up on the eastern horizon.

At 4:10 A. M., the Hindenburg for the first time touched soil in the United States—on the first of its ten scheduled round trip commercial voyages from Germany during the summer.

A landing crew of trained sailors from the United States navy, aided by about 50 civilians, brought the ship safely to land. The civilians were pressed into service because soldier reinforcements from Camp Dix were not on hand when the ship arrived.

Swarm of Ground Men

The Hindenburg circled over the air station before it lowered to the earth, dumped its water ballast, and threw out its ropes. Its speed was so greatly reduced that as it slowly turned about the field it looked as if it were standing still. With all its low lines handled by the swarm of ground men, the Hindenburg's nose was made fast to the mobile mooring mast at 4:23 A. M.

The ship, carrying 51 passengers and a crew of 56, was slowly towed into the hangar.

To make room for the Hindenburg, naval officials removed from the hangar last night the old naval dirigible Los Angeles, which the United States gained from Germany after the World War.

The landing was more difficult than had been expected, although with the adequate preparations it was still handled with ease.

Just before the Hindenburg reached the Lakehurst field, the wind veered from northwest to southeast, necessitating expert maneuvering to bring it in.

Dr. Eckener Smiles

As soon as the ship was made fast to the mooring mast, Dr. Hugo Eckener, the famous dirigible designer, leaned out of the control cabin, the famous smile spread over his face and he waved a greeting to the throng of 5,000 people.

To Dr. Eckener it was perhaps just another cross of the Atlantic. It was on Oct. 15, 1928, that he first brought across the North Atlantic the Graf Zeppelin, which for the last few years has been in regular commercial service between Germany and Brazil.

As soon as the ship was made fast to the movable mooring mast, immigration officers—just as if it were a big liner at Quarantine in New York Bay—went aboard and made the routine inspection.

A special post office crew was on

LOOKING BACK—

By Joseph Fort Newton
"THINGS are in a bad way," writes a dear old reader. "In the old days the home was not a place where parents and children sought to relieve the boredom of their leisure hours, as it is in our day."

"It was a place of many interrelated activities, where each worked for all, where daily sacrifices of time and comfort and cherished desires were freely offered to one another, for the common good."

"As a result, the oldtime home turned out a product which combined the strength of iron with the beauty and delicacy and finish of a work of art, men strong and true, and women unselfish and lovely."

"Today we seek to produce character without the old manufacturing plant. Such homes have sunk out of sight in the mists of the past, along with handwoven panelings and gambrel roofs and stone fireplaces."

"What a lovely elegy of a time when there was a halo about every head and a rainbow around every haystack. My reader is not writing history; he is romanticizing about the past seen through the lens of memory."

"But memory, like a mirage, lifts up the lovely things, and leaves the rest below. If the oldtime home was such a paradise, why did so many boys leave to go West, or to lose themselves in the crowded city?"

"No, life in the old days was not all duty, devotion, and delight. Often it was a hard-scrabble, wrenching a poor living from stern soil, a drudgery day in and day out, aloof from the world of affairs."

"If my reader had to go back to the life in days ago, he would find it very unlike the ideal he sees in memory. Nor would he lament the disastrous flabbiness he finds in the character of modern youth."

"Such flabbiness does not exist in any greater degree today than in the old days. We may be too lax in respect to discipline, but those of us who endured the oldtime days may be forgiven for it."

"One extreme may have led to another if so the pendulum will swing back to better sense. In the meantime, we do not go forward by looking back, day-dreaming of days that never were and come not back."

Ginger Rogers and Lew Ayres Separate

Hollywood, Calif., May 9.—(AP)—Ginger Rogers, dancing actress and her husband, Lew Ayres, actor-director, said today they had decided to live amicably apart, but that no divorce was planned immediately.

A joint statement issued by the couple through a studio said: "Ginger Rogers and Lew Ayres have instructed their attorneys to draw up articles of separation."

"The action is entirely amicable. In the future, the two will maintain separate residences. Miss Rogers will live with her mother, Mrs. Leila Rogers."

"No divorce is contemplated at the present time."

"The film colony is puzzled over the significance of this last pronouncement, but Miss Rogers and Ayres declined to amplify it."

Ayres took the petite blond actress for his bride November 14, 1934.

Mother & Daughter Banquet Sponsored By M.E. Aid Enjoyed

The fifteenth annual Mother and Daughter banquet sponsored by the Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church was held Friday evening in the dining room of the church. About one hundred and fifty mothers and daughters attended and the affair under the direction of Mrs. G. P. Powell, general chairman for the occasion, was a decided success. The decorations were beautiful. Lovely spring flowers and daintily fashioned nut cups adorned each table. Mrs. Powell made a brief talk, reviewing past banquets and stressing the importance of such gatherings to strengthen the ties of comradeship between mothers and daughters. She then introduced Mrs. Howard P. Buxton, who very ably served as toastmistress. The invocation was given by Mrs. A. N. Boyd and the guests partook of a bounteous dinner prepared by Circle No. 1 of the society, under the direction of Mrs. W. P. Bovey. At the conclusion of the dinner the daughters in a very happy mood sang the "How Do You Do" song to the mothers. They were accompanied on an accordion by Alice Hintz. Gladys Marth gave the address of welcome and the response was given by Mrs. Phillip Hopkins. Miss Helen McNichol gave the "Toast to Our Mothers," and Mrs. P. O. Heckman responded with a "Toast to Our Daughters." The toastmistress then introduced the main speaker of the evening, Mrs. Bond of Sterling, wife of Rev. Ray Edwin Bond, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church in that city. Mrs. Bond is a very able speaker and paid a glowing tribute to mothers and daughters the world over. Her address was listened to attentively by everyone present and her words struck a vibrant chord in every heart. At the conclusion of the address a quartet composed of two mothers and their daughters, very beautifully sang "Mother." The quartet was composed of Mrs. Clara Shawger, Mrs. Redebaugh, Mrs. Randall and Mrs. Crawford Thomas. They were accompanied at the piano by Miss Marion Ahrens.

The delightful affair was brought to a close by the benediction.

Miss May Lord Hostess to Guild

A very pleasant all day meeting of the Unity Guild was held on Thursday with Miss May Lord with fourteen members present, and two guests, Mrs. E. J. Countryman and Miss Gladys Herrick in attendance to enjoy the tempting dinner served at noon. The home was lovely with many bouquets of spring flowers. The ladies were busily engaged in quilting for the hostess, and the time passed happily in chat and work.

A short business meeting was held and plans were made for attendance at Dr. Preston Bradley's church in Chicago for the usual June outing.

A letter of gratitude was read from Dr. Bradley in appreciation of the money sent for broadcasting. Also a message of thanks was sent to the Guild from Mrs. Nellie Johnson with a liberal donation to the Guild. The members were very sorry she was not able to attend this meeting.

Mrs. Fred Lord of Polo was a guest of the afternoon.

This happy meeting closed the year's work for Unity Guild, which has proven very successful with much work accomplished. Meetings of the Guild will be resumed in September.

Delightful Meeting E. R. B. Class

The E. R. B. class of St. Paul's Lutheran church met in the church parlors Thursday evening, May 7, with a picnic supper. The tables were laden with tempting dishes and all did justice to the appetizing repast.

After the supper the meeting was called to order with the president, Mrs. Christianson, presiding. Mrs. Florence Stewart presided at the piano as a song was sung and Miss Eleanor Powell read the Scripture lesson and led in prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read. After the treasurer's report was read, roll call found twenty-seven members and several guests present. The committee made a report on the rummage sale, and a neat sum was added to the treasury. After the transacting of all business the meeting closed with the singing of a song and prayer.

A short program was then given. Mrs. Earl Auman sang two beautiful numbers. Everyone always enjoys her singing. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. H. M. Edwards. Miss Charlotte Lou Ruggles gave two readings, which were splendid, bringing to a close a delightful evening spent by the class. The hostesses were Mrs. Emma Kested, Mrs. Letitia Jones, Mrs. Anna Raffenberg, Miss Olive Raffenberg.

Lamb Pie Is a Meal in Itself

Carrots, onions and celery are cooked with left-over lamb, and mashed potatoes are piped around the border to form a delicious and satisfying meat pie, an economical and time-saving main dish.

By Lucile Harris.

USE SYTEM IN PLANNING DAILY MEALS

Have you ever noticed how much more interesting a task becomes when you go about it according to some system? Using your head to save your heels, your mother probably called it. But thinking things out instead of going on in slipshod manner can turn any task from drudgery into an interesting, even absorbing undertaking.

This is especially true of this "job" of homemaking. One of its phases, the selection and preparation of food, can be either a stumbling block, or a real pleasure. A good general knowledge of food values and of the combinations which go to make a balanced diet is necessary but fortunately this is easily acquired.

"Plan your meals about the meat course" is a good general rule to follow. The reason is that meat contains the best quality protein that food element which builds body tissues and repairs the wear and tear of our daily activities. Meat also contains calories to provide energy, as well as other necessary food elements.

To accompany meat, or the main protein dish, the balanced meal contains a starchy food, such as potatoes or rice, a green vegetable, and a fresh vegetable or fruit. The fresh vegetable or fruit may appear in the form of a salad. Or fruit may be used as dessert.

Here are a few suggestions for food combinations to guide you in planning your daily menus.

With roast beef, serve brown potatoes and as a vegetable creamed celery, string beans or corn.

With pot-roast, use spaghetti as your starchy food, with turnips, carrots or string beans for the vegetable.

With pot-roast, use spaghetti as your starchy food, with turnips, carrots or string beans for the vegetable.

With roast veal, boiled rice or noodles, spinach, green beans, peas or asparagus.

With sweetbreads, French-fried potatoes, and green peas or mushrooms.

With roast pork, brown potatoes or sweet potatoes, and choose as a vegetable green string beans, turnips, cabbage or cauliflower.

With pork chops, creamed or mashed potatoes, and tomatoes or onions, celery or carrots. Apple sauce, baked apples or fried apples go well as a fruit with any pork dish.

Leg of lamb, brown potatoes and green peas, are a favorite combination, but spinach, asparagus or cauliflower are other vegetables which go well with lamb.

In selecting the starchy and green vegetables to accompany meat, consider the ease with which they may be cooked together, or may be combined in one dish.

Here are a few recipes for dishes in which meat and vegetables are served in delicious combinations.

Lamb Pie With Mashed Potato Border

2 cups diced cooked lamb

1 cup carrot balls

8-10 small white onions

1 green pepper, sliced

1/2 cup diced celery

1 pimiento, diced

Salt and pepper

Cook vegetables until nearly done. Add diced lamb and left-over gravy. Put in a casserole. Cook long enough to heat the meat.

A camel doesn't feel the pangs of thirst for five days after drinking.

thoroughly. Pipe a border of hot mashed potatoes around the edge and place under the broiler flame to brown.

Veal Steak and Rice

Veal steak, cut 1 inch thick,

2 tablespoons lard

1/2 cup rice

1 large or 2 medium sized tomatoes

1 medium-sized Spanish onion

2 green peppers

Salt and pepper

Brown veal steak on both sides in a little hot yard. Then place it in the bottom of a well-greased casserole. Wash the rice and spread over the meat. Add salt. Cut tomato into 4 thick slices and place on the rice. Then put a thick onion slice and one-half sliced pepper on each tomato slice. Cover with hot water. Put a lid on baking dish and bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) until done, about 45 minutes.

Roast Pork with Sweet Potatoes

1 pork loin

6 oranges, uniform size

6 sweet potatoes

6 marshmallows

Butter

Salt and pepper

Have a loin of pork prepared at the market with the chine bone sawed loose. Season with salt and pepper. Place roast on a rack in an uncovered roasting pan. Roast in a slow oven (300°-350° F.) until done. Allow about thirty minutes per pound for roasting.

Cut a slice off the top of the oranges and scoop out the pulp. Scallop the edges with a sharp knife. Pare and boil sweet potatoes. Mash. Mix with some of the orange pulp, season with salt, pepper and butter. Fill the orange cups with this mixture and place in the oven to heat. Two or three minutes before serving time, remove from the oven, top each orange with a marshmallow and put back in the oven to puff and slightly brown the marshmallows. Serve orange cups around the roast pork.

Dutch Pot Roast

3 or 4 pounds rump or chuck

1 tablespoons bacon fat or drippings

1 teaspoon salt

Pepper

1 cup chopped carrots

1 tablespoon sugar

5 cups stewed tomatoes

1 Spanish onion, chopped fine

2 green peppers, cut in slivers

1/2 cup chopped celery

Brown meat well in hot fat. Add vegetables and seasoning, cover and let simmer for three hours, or until done. Add small quantities of water when necessary. Thicken the liquid left with flour made into a paste with cold water. Serve gravy separately.

Lamb Chop Grill

6 lamb chops, cut thick

6 onions, medium-sized

6 potatoes, cooked

6 peach halves

6 slices bacon

6 whole cloves

3 tablespoons grated cheese

1/2 cup cracker crumbs

3 tablespoons butter

3 tablespoons sugar

Salt

Pepper

Place the chops in a sizzling hot frying-pan. Brown on both sides, then reduce the heat and panbroil for about ten minutes, pouring off the fat as it collects. Parboil onions, remove the centers, dust with salt and fill with bits of American cheese and cracker crumbs. Place a bit of butter on top and sprinkle with sugar to glaze.

Place the partially cooked chops on a fire-proof platter; arrange slices of cooked potatoes, stuffed onions and peach halves into which whole cloves have been stuck. Season with salt and pepper. Put the bacon slices on top of potatoes. Place in a moderate oven (350° F.) until the chops are done and vegetables browned.

Newmann-Sweitzer Wedding Today

Clarence Sweitzer of this city and Miss Helen Newmann of Quincy, were united in marriage this morning at the parsonage of the First Methodist church at Oregon. The single ring ceremony was used and the couple were attended by Miss Augusta Newmann of Quincy, sister of the bride, and Virgil Pittman of Dixon. The bride was attired in white while her sister wore a grey swaggar suit. The young couple returned to Dixon following the ceremony and after a brief wedding trip will make their home in this city. Mrs. Sweitzer has made her home in Dixon for the past seven months residing with Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Pittman and the groom is one of the trusted employees at the Medusa cement plant east of the city.

PEORIA-ROCK ISLAND- LA SALLE TOUR

340 Miles

(Editor's note—This is one of a series of tours to scenic and historical spots in Illinois planned in observation of Illinois' First Conservation Week, beginning May 10.
These tours, planned by the state of Illinois, are for the purpose of acquainting Illinois citizens with the scenic, historical and recreational areas within their own state.)

15 miles northwest of Peoria off of U. S. 150 is one of the newer state parks—Jubilee College. This park was acquired because it is the site of one of the earliest institutions of learning in the state. In 1840 Philander Chase started a small college there after having founded Kenyon College in Ohio.
The topography of this old piece of ground and the ancient oak trees still give the interesting old college and chapel building much of its pre-Civil War setting. In the adjacent cemetery many names famous to the religious scholar are found on the mossy tomb stones.

At the entrance to this park from U. S. 150 is one of the official state highway historical site markers that briefly give the history of the old college. The title of the marker is "Jubilee College" and there is an approach warning sign on the highway that can not be missed by a leisurely driver.

In the tours that are suggested for Conservation Week special note is made of the things that are of particular interest, aside from that which nature gives us in the spring. The official state highway historical site markers and the newly developed official state highway picnic areas are among those things of particular interest that are to be found on the accompaning tours maps as well as on the new 1936 official state highway map that is free for the asking at most places where maps are distributed or at the different state offices.

If one has an official state highway map on which the historical site markers are indicated as well as the picnic sites it is not difficult to plan in advance to make note of these sites or have lunch on the convenience of a picnic table. The historical sites along the highway are preceded in both directions by warning signs that state "Historical Marker Ahead."

The picnic areas are to be found along the highway as indicated on the map at places where it looks as if there should be a picnic area.
There are few warning signs for these areas to inform the driver of an approaching area as indicated on the map.

At the junction of Ill. 83 with U.
S. 150 is another official highway picnic area. There may not be a warning sign at this area so if your itinerary calls for lunch there refer closely to your official state highway map.

Along the Rock River drive there are numerous official state highway picnic areas and a number of highway historical markers. Just off of Ill. 86 and on the south side of the river along Ill. 78 is a historical marker titled "Prophet'stown" heading a short history pertaining to the region and of interest to the people of Illinois.

At Dixon there is the Lincoln Monument located just west of the route and along the north side of the river. This was erected on the site of the old Dixon Block House which is the site of Lincoln's army days as well.

Along the Rock River there are more official highway picnic areas per mile than on any other highway in the state. Near Grand Detour is a historical site marker titled "The First Steel Plow" with a brief description of the history that such an advent created.

Ten miles directly west of Oregon is White Pines State Park noted for its stand of White Pine.
The route is over an improved bituminous macadam road for tourists who do not care to follow the river down to Dixon. At the park many improvements are being accomplished by the CCC camp that is located there.

If the tourist has not seen a CCC camp it is most highly recommended that he visit this camp. This camp along with others throughout the state has extended a cordial invitation to the public to visit them during Conservation Week.
Here may be seen how the problems pertaining to park development or soil conservation are best met. Where the camps are located at parks the problem is to provide for the public necessities without encroaching upon the natural features. Many of the CCC camps are located at places where it is necessary to do work in soil conservation. The CCC barracks will either location that you will see are typical of thousands of others throughout the country.

Leaving the White Pines State Park it is possible to return to Oregon and continue south on Ill. 2 or to go south from the park over an improved gravel road to Dixon.
The river route is probably the more interesting with a continuation of the wonderful views between Byron and Oregon. Here there are additional picnic areas, much rugged topography and a historical marker titled "First Steel Plow."

Starved Rock State Park is brim-full of Indian lore. To thoroughly see this park would require two or three days but for a few hours of the tour it is possible to see much of the main point of interests. Briefly, it may be stated that aside from Starved Rock itself most of the interest is to be found in the many trails that wind in and out, over and above, the canyons that run back in sheer bluffs from the river. The river views with the many trail shelters make the trails very restful. Many of the recent improvements for public use have been done by the two CCC camps that are located in the park and to which the public is invited to inspect during Conservation Week.

On a tour of this length it is not advised that much time be spent in stopping at the many points of interest that are shown on the map unless it is possible to make the tour in two or three days. More time should be spent in driving slowly than in trying to make connections at a certain hour.

Just south of the village of Bureau on Ill. 29 is the old Illinois and Mississippi Canal that has its east end near this point with the west end near Rock Island on the Mississippi river. The entire drive between this canal and Peoria is along the west side of the river.
The river views are continually changing as the road parallels the river with every bend. A rather steep ascending bank on the west side of the right-of-way is always changing in contour and foliage forms to make the entire drive unblemished on either side.

Stock Believed of No Value by Blind Man Brings $4500

Chicago, May 9—(AP)—Herman W. Brockelhurst, a blind man who had been sought by bank officials who wished to pay him $4,500 realized from the sale of utility stock he owned, had been located today—a patient in the Oak Forest infirmary.

The stock was in his possession last October when he was arrested and later freed on a disorderly conduct charge, only to be sent to the infirmary by the Cook county sheriff's office.

Brockelhurst said he thought the stock was worthless. Superintendent Frank Venecek of the infirmary said, but admitted he owned a house at Yates City, Ill., and had other securities in a safety deposit box there. He will be kept at the infirmary until some one to look after his affairs is found. Venecek said. A brother, Lester, lives in Maquon, Ill.

Explosions are heard 100 miles away, while there are large areas of inaudibility much nearer the source of sound. These "zones of silence" are produced by atmospheric conditions.

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

The old prospector scratched his head and thought a bit, and then he said, "I'll bet I know where Duncy is. I don't think we need fret."
"If I am right, he's safe and sound and right now bumping 'cross the ground. My guess is, he has done the dumbest thing he's pulled off yet."
"When we were loading all my gold in that small truck, wee Duncy rolled the bags around. He worked inside the truck, you will recall."
"It's my hunch that he grew tired out, and took a little nap, no doubt.
To guess that he was locked inside the truck's not hard at all."
"Then he is riding far away," the Tinies heard fair Dotty say. "How will he ever get back here? That's what I'd like to know."
"He won't remember where we are, and, if he does, it is too far for him to walk. When he wakes up,
'twill be an awful blow."
Their old friend then said, "You will see, that if you leave it all to me, the whole thing will turn out all right. Don't worry any more."
"One of my pet birds will be glad to fly right out and get the lad.
With Duncy in his claws, the bird is strong enough to soar."
"Oh, my, how thrilling," Goldy cried. "I hope the truckmen find him ere they get too far away."
"I'd like to see the sleepyhead when he wakes up in his strange bed. Perhaps, now, in the future, wide awake he'll gladly stay."
Now, let's join Duncy once again.
His shouting to the two truckmen gave them a big surprise. They brought their small truck to a stop.
Their truck bars then were opened wide and Duncy quickly jumped outside, and shouted, "That last nap I took turned out to be a flop."

AAA Administrator Davis May Retire Belief in Capital

Washington, May 9—(AP)—Authoritative sources here indicated AAA Administrator Chester C. Davis would not return to active direction of the soil conservation farm program upon his arrival from Europe late this month.

He has been in Europe several weeks studying prospects for increasing the nation's foreign trade and will report to President Roosevelt.

Future possibilities mentioned by informed sources were:
That Davis would obtain a leave of absence or resign to assume an important Democratic post in the midwest during the presidential campaign.

That he would receive an appointment as the farmer representative on the Federal Reserve Board.
That he might return to private business.

VIGILANTES FORMED
Rockford—Upon the advice of Sheriff Paul F. Johnson, 500 Winnebago county farmers, at a mass meeting, organized a vigilante committee of five men from each township to combat livestock and poultry thieves.

The Civil Service League reports that approximately 85,000 women are employed by the U. S. government.

What Is Life Insurance?

Life Insurance is a financial service to mankind which has stood the test of two panics, a World War, a world-wide epidemic and a world-wide depression, and is now stronger than ever. Those who sense the stability, security and service of life insurance, value its capacity to conserve and compound savings as compared with ephemeral, catch-as-catch-can schemes that merely defraud and disap-point.

Life insurance is the only medium known to man through which, if he lives up to his part of the bargain he can create or accumulate, transmit or transfer, preserve or trustee in kind, by one contract, an estate which all the while is backed by a perfect diversification that insures ones investments as well as his life.

Reduced to simpler terms, it is a certificate of deposit bought on an uncommon installment purchase plan that cancels at death all unpaid installments, and pays the face of the certificate even though payments have been made at less than one-half the legal interest rate annually.

To put it another way, it is a plan which permits the purchase of money for delivery in the future at times when it will be needed most.

Dad: "Why were you kept in at school?"
Son: "I didn't know where the Azores were."
Dad: "In the future just remember where you put things."
How about a brand new picket fence? It'll surprise you how little one will cost and how it will dress your place up.
"I believe," said the cheery philosopher, "that for every single thing you give away, two-fold comes back to you."

"That's my experience," agreed Whifflebaum. "Last March I gave away my daughter, and she and her husband came back in July."
Say—how about those fence posts? We just received a shipment and will be glad to give you prices on them. It looks like they're going up in price, too.
"That man cheats," said a golfer as he entered the clubhouse. "He lost his ball in the rough and played another ball without losing a stroke."

"How do you know he didn't find his ball?" asked a friend.
"Because I've got it in my pocket," replied the righteous one.
We don't like to keep harping about screens—but if you don't put 'em down, you'll be sorry a bit later. We'll be glad to give you an estimate.

Gosh dingit—Now that we just got our Christmas presents paid for, the family has started to talk about summer vacations.

JUSTICE TO OF THE PEACE COURT ON FRIDAY

Princeton--Bob Joines, Princeton and John Lammin, giving his address as Pennsylvania were arrested by city police Thursday night and charged with being drunk and disorderly in Justice H. A. Pettie's court Friday morning. Joines was picked up about 12:30 A. M. Friday morning while causing a disturbance at "Haps" East Shop on North Main street. Lammin was arrested while staggering aimlessly about a side street. When brought to the city jail, he was found to have a pint bottle partially filled with rubbing alcohol, which he had been imbibing. Joines was fined $25 and costs, amounting to $28.40, which he paid. Lammin was fined $10 and costs amounting to $13.40, and in default of payment was taken to the county jail to lay it out at the rate of $2 per day.

ILL AT HOME.

George Janos, 3 son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Janos is confined to his home with a serious illness. He is reported to be resting comfortably but not yet out of danger.

ATTEND CONFERENCE.

Mrs. Marie Daugherty of Princeton, Miss Mausbury, home advisor of LaSalle county and Luella Kohlstedt of Marshall-Putnam county will leave Sunday to attend a home advisors' conference to be held from Monday to Friday of next week at the University of Illinois at Urbana.

4-H PROJECTS.

Bureau County Girl Food Leaders of the 4-H club are interested at present in projects of outdoor meals and first, second and third year food projects. The leaders are as follows for the outdoor meals: Dorothy Hoover, Princeton; Kathleen Neill, LaMoille; and Irene Peterson, LaMoille; for the food projects, Mrs. Reda Downer, Tiskilwa; Mrs. Henry Middleton, Princeton; and Mrs. Florence Stevens, Sheffield. The clubs are still open to those who are interested in enrolling.

BUNCO CLUB.

The Bestime Bunco club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. William Hallam on South First street. Three tables were in play and prizes were won by Mrs. Phillip Schendel, Mrs. Tracy Horton and Mrs. Arthur Norberg. The next meeting will be a covered dish supper at Mrs. Horton's home, to be held Thursday evening, May 21.

CLUB POSTPONED.

Because of the Mother and Daughter banquet which was held Thursday evening at the Congregational church the bridge club meeting which was to have taken place at the home of Miss Myrtle Crichfield was postponed until next Thursday.

BANQUET AT CHURCH.

More than 100 guests were present at the Mother and Daughter banquet which was held Thursday evening at the Congregational church. The guests enjoyed a supper which was served by the Delta Alpha society of the church, after which an interesting program was given. Decorations for the occasion were carried out with bouquets of colorful spring flowers, including bleeding hearts, tulips, violets and lilacs, lavender shades predominating.

WORLD CRUISE PICTURES

Shown at M. E. Church A good attendance was present Thursday evening at the Methodist church when Mr. Gardner, a representative of the Dollar Line, showed a "talkie," the affair being sponsored by the Methodist Guild. The object of showing the picture was to raise money for the Guild, and a fine sum was realized. The picture took the audience on a cruise around the world, and scenes from nearly 20 countries were shown, depicting the life of natives in various parts of the world, with their methods of living and working, their buildings and occupations.

IN CHICAGO.

Mr. and Mrs. John Skinner were in Chicago Thursday on business.

DRAMA CIRCLE.

An enjoyable event of Thursday afternoon was the meeting of the Drama Circle which was held at the home of Mrs. Maud Hodgman on Park avenue East. Mrs. Cecilia McManis was assistant hostess. There were 14 members in attendance and one guest, Miss Ellen Stevens of Tiskilwa. The guests were seated at one large and two small tables and bouquets of lilacs were used in the appointments.

Following the one o'clock luncheon, Mrs. Ernest Roe read a tragedy in three acts, "White Man," by Hanson Raphaelson.

The next meeting of the Circle will be held Thursday afternoon, May 21, at the home of Mrs. Fannie Clark on Park Ave. East.

DANCE AT PARK.

The young people of Princeton and vicinity are looking forward with anticipation to the opening of the summer dance season at Alexander Park, which will be held Saturday and Sunday nights. During the past few days the dance hall has undergone complete renovation and decoration. Snell's orchestra will play for the Saturday night dance, and Connie Wendell and his musicians from the University of Wisconsin will furnish music for Saturday night.

COUNTRY CLUB.

Members of Bureau Valley Country club will be present at the grand opening to be held on Thursday, May 14, when a number of activities will be in progress all day. Golf, bridge and dancing will be among the entertainments, with luncheon at noon and a dinner at night.

There were 21 men golfers present at the opening tournament at the club on Thursday of this week. A seven o'clock dinner was served after the golf. The winning team was one captained by Ray Kinnan.

OFFICERS ELECTED AT CHURCH GROUP MEETING

The Christian Missionary Society met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. E. Fuller at her home on East Peru street, 20 members being in attendance. A business session was held, when officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Fuller; vice president, Mrs. Frank Castner; treasurer, Mrs. J. K. Frasier; secretary, Mrs. Matson; World Call secretary, Miss Georgia Winslip; and literary secretary, Mrs. Nancy Paden.

Mrs. Myra Hickman was in charge of devotions, after which the program was given by Rev. Matson, who had as his topic "Paraguay, S. A."

Refreshments were served later in the afternoon and announcement was made of the next meeting to be held in June at the home of Miss Pearl Lafferty.

FRANKLIN GROVE

BY GRACE PEARL

Franklin Grove--Jack Johnson, a former Franklin Grove boy, has returned to the old home town and is now employed with Carl Blume and his crew of carpenters.

The Woman's Club is busy these days making plans for its May breakfast which will be held the 18th of this month. Each member is requested to invite a friend.

Roy Gremmel of Chicago spent several days the past week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Strock of Yale, Iowa, were here several days the first of the week being called here to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. George Withey.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Maronde entertained with two tables of 50 Tuesday evening. Howard Norris won high score and Eldon Wilson low. During the evening lovely refreshments were served.

Mrs. Mabel Henry has improved the appearance of her place very much by building a lovely new front porch.

The Kilo club was entertained on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. LaForest Meredith, the entire membership was present. The roll call miscellaneous was very interesting. Mrs. Cecil Cravens gave a review of the book "While Rome Burns" by Walcott. This proved to be far more interesting than had been before. Marvelous refreshments were served. Mrs. A. J. Stewart was an invited guest.

Francis Maronde is employed by Bert Vogeler at his farm south of town.

Miss Rose Bissel of Lighthouse had the misfortune to fall at her home Friday night and was taken to St. Anthony's hospital in Rockford. Her many friends hope that she may soon be able to return to her home.

Mrs. Fred Gross attended a Mother's Day luncheon in Lee Center Wednesday afternoon.

Since publishing the Presbyterian notes in Wednesday's paper, Miss Mary Jean Miller will give a reading Sunday morning entitled "Mother's Love" by Louise E. Thayer.

John Bellazza of the Franklin Reporter has been assisting in the Ashton Gazette office several days the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pfoutz from south of town, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Pfoutz and family of this place joined with a large group of relatives and friends in assisting Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pfoutz at Ashton to celebrate their wedding anniversary.

Prof. Neal Mears of Chicago came Thursday for a few days visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore.

Friends here have been advised of the serious illness of Mrs. Clarence Pense at her home in Oak Park. The Pense family are former residents of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Maves and family of Dixon spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Watson.

Mrs. Dave Weigle and Mrs. F. E. Duncan were delegates from the Woman's club to the 38th annual convention of the 13th district Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs.

Lorenzo Matern came Thursday for a few days visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bates.

Barbara Lawler, daughter of Henry and Nancy Heath Lawler, was born in Knox county, Ohio, January 2, 1850, and departed this life in Franklin Grove May 3, 1936, at the age of 86 years, 4 months and 1 day.

When four years of age she came with her family in a covered wagon to Ogle county, Illinois, where she made her home for 9 years, and then moved to Lee county where she had lived for 73 years.

On May 21, 1868, she was united in marriage to George C. Withey, who with their two daughters, Mrs. Grace Orner and Mrs. Clara Kohl, preceded her in death. Eight sisters and two brothers have also gone before her.

She leaves to mourn her passing her two sons, Ezra of Vega, Washington, and Henry of this place; two sisters, Mrs. Milan Doane of Forest Grove, Oregon, and Mrs. Frank Bennett of Dixon and five grandchildren: Roy Withey of Chicago; Bessie Withey of San Francisco, and George, Barbara and Clara Kohl of Franklin Grove, besides many other relatives and friends.

Her life has been beautiful in expression of thought and in service for others. Although there will be loneliness without her, we have a beautiful memory and life to those she loved is sweeter for having had her as inspiration.

When the twilight of eve dims the suns last ray
And the shades of the night gather fast,
There is one fleeting hour that I've prayed would stay,
Full of joy and of pain that's past.

And perhaps you may know of its wondrous spell,
Its smiles and it bitter tears,
And emotions arise that no words can tell,
As you look back o'er the years.

But that one fleeting hour with its dream is gone
And the mists of the night slowly rise,
Then its well to forget and go bravely on
With a smile spite of tear-dimmed eyes.

For that one fleeting hour can make you strong
If you will but heed its call,
And then every day will be one glad song

Full of love that will conquer all,
Funeral services were held at the late home Wednesday afternoon, Rev. O. D. Buck of the Church of the Brethren officiating. Mrs. Ruth Kelley, accompanied by Mrs. James Conlon, sang two funeral hymns. Casket bearers were: Julia and Joe Gilbert, Clarence Miller, John Myers, Clyde Phillips, Chas. Howard. Interment in the Franklin Grove cemetery.

CHARACTER BUILDING

By Ione Butterbaugh

One of the most precious earthly treasures a boy or girl can have is a good character. Our character is what we really are. If we look beyond what we appear to be and what people think of us, and look at our heart fairly and honestly, then we can judge whether we have a good character or not. When a boy or a girl is misunderstood or misjudged it is comforting to know that deep in your heart you have been true. But it will take away from your friends and your character if in your heart you know you have been untrue.

Our character building goes on every day. There is not a day that does not tell for a good or bad character. No character is built good and true if the builder has not in their mind a picture or pattern of what they want to be. And a pattern for a good character must be chosen carefully. No carpenter will undertake to build a house without a plan and pattern, and so a boy or girl cannot build a good true character without following a true pattern.

It is easier to build a bad than a good character. One can always go down hill with less difficulty than up and it is easier to go with the crowd than stand for the right. Choose well each day. Build for all time, not just for the present. What you are building today will bring you praise all your life, or either it will be to your disgrace. To do right will often cause struggle, but it is always worth the effort in the end.

Antique History

The ancient history class has completed the general study of the Renaissance and the Reformation. The Renaissance, which means "new birth," concerns the revival of learning which followed the crusades. It is said that due to this learning, our own country was discovered. This is probably true, for if a desire to learn had not been born in the people, Columbus might never have set out to establish a new trade water route to India. The Reformation was the background of all the different religions of today. After this first breaking away from the Roman Catholic church, many smaller breaks started. It is interesting to discover these beginnings of our present world.

Freshmen Return Party.

The Freshmen have finally given their return party. Many high school students have been impatiently waiting for it. This party has been planned before, but had to be postponed. The attendance of the party held last Friday evening at Kersten's hall was about 45.

Josephine Kelly, Roberta Kint and Evelyn Kuhn planned the entertainment. The party was opened by playing a laughing game. To play this game the guests had to be divided into two groups. The leader threw up a hat and if it landed on one side the first group laughed. If it landed on the other side the second group laughed. The people who laughed out of turn had to go to the opposite group. We then played a traveling game, remaining in the same groups as before. A suit case containing a coat, hat, glove and shawl was set in front of each group. Each person had to carry this suit case to a certain mark, put the clothes on, go further, then come back and take the clothes off. There was much laughter and shouting going on while each side hurried to beat the other.

"Sing Me a Song" also caused much merriment. A person who stood in the center, was blindfolded and the others sat in a circle around him. He would point in some direction and say, "Sing Me a Song." The person sitting there had to sing or make some kind of a noise. A spelling bee was another interest of the evening. For the letter "a" you had to raise your right hand and for "i" you raised your left hand. Baseball was played. Instead of batting the ball you kicked it with your foot.

The girls were then given slips of paper containing numbers which stood for letters. They had to figure out whose name it was then get him for their partner. For refreshments, ice cream and pie were served.

After refreshments were served a May Day parade was given with Eleanor Yocum acting as May queen. Her attendants were Darlene Buck, Orville Fess, Fred Fess, Raymond Patterson and Ted Phillips.

Senior Play

The senior play is progressing nicely. A longer writup will be given next week. At present they are working very hard to make their play a success. Don't forget it will be given May 22 at the Camp Grounds.

Dr.-Sr. Banquet, May 8
The Junior-Senior banquet was in charge of the following committees:

Place and transportation--Ione Butterbaugh and Albert Wendell.
Invitations--Mary Jean Miller and Mildred Bill.
Program--Florence Blekking, Georgia Peterman, Betty Wasson and Raymond Patterson.

David Studebaker is president of the class and thus ex-officio member of all committees.

AG. NEWS

By John Schafer

I entered high school in 33 and decided to take Ag. Along with this course I had a beef project. It was a grade Hereford selected from the farm herd. I fed him a ration consisting of equal parts ground oats and corn, also one-half pound oil meal and one-half pound bran. I did not win any money because this calf was not in very good shape when I showed him and also because he was younger than most calves there. The calf weighed 94 pounds when I shipped him the last of August.

The second year of Ag. I bought a grade Angus steer. This steer was fed the same ration as the first but did not do so well on it because he was of a nervous type and did not eat quite so well. I took this calf to the same fair as my first calf and just broke even in my fair expenses which was a little better than the first year. Considering the disadvantages I had with this calf I shipped him the latter part of August and he weighed 900 pounds and I received $9.25 per hundred. My third year of Ag. work, I have started a grade Hereford heifer. She was a range calf selected out of three carloads. She has very good qualities and is proving to be a very good calf in all respects. She is getting a ration of equal parts shelled corn and oats and one pound soybean meal. I am also planning a minor project which will be 50 white rock chicks.

Math. and Science Dept.
This last week the biology class has been studying about birds.

The bookkeeping class is finishing its work in making entries of transactions of French and Breen, hardware merchants. As soon as these books are closed they will have finished their work for the year.

The physics class finishes its work on sound and next week they will begin the study of light.

Special topics were assigned Thursday on different musical instruments, such as the saxophone, clarinet, tuba, violin, trombone, pipe organ, piano and cornet. Classes this week have been entertained by solemn songs on the piano.

Honor Roll

Freshmen--Betty Heath, Bernice Hartzell, Roberta Kint, June Miller, Sophomore--Marjorie Miller, Elizabeth Chronister, Hazel Blume.

Junior--Florence Blekking, Mary Jean Miller, Georgia Peterman, Dave Studebaker, Mildred Bill.

Senior--Earl Blekking, Pauline Kelley, Josephine Miller, Mary Hall.

While the honor roll is not quite so large as last time, still it is good sized. How about having 20 on the honor roll the last six weeks. You know yourself, that if you worked a little harder you would be there.

You know your name so I will not mention any. The boys on it would like some more boys up there too. Being on the honor roll is no derogatory distinction. The seniors really surprised everybody this last six weeks for their class average of 2.6; juniors, 2.53; sophomores, 2.51; and freshmen, 2.46. It's the first time the seniors have led. We should have started sooner. Watch us stay ahead now.

Spectator I

Down by the "Old Mill Spring" seems to be a popular place for juniors to go on Sunday afternoons. Did it ever rain Friday night? even when the ducks went swimming in strange places.

A boy's quartet has been found consisting of Ken and Bob Wasson, Dave Studebaker and Earl Blekking. They will dispense music at baccalaureate.

Tonight the juniors will lead the seniors forth on a cruise to an unknown land where a banquet awaits them. We have to say that the juniors made a good job of keeping it a secret.

One freshman girl gets very nautical letters from Dixon, Oh. ho, go sailing on the good ship Lollypop!

Spectator II

Eventually the push and shove rush to get in the hall will be displaced by a stampede to get out.

Miss Hunter, after hearing a continual humming in the room--"Who's the one man glee club?" Darlene Buck--"Oh I see you bought a car."

June Hatch--"Yes, I went into the garage to use the phone and I hated to come out without buying a little something."

Mr. Cozzens in general science class--"What can you tell me about nitrates?"

Roberta--"Well, they're a lot cheaper than day rates."

"Hello Bill, have an accident."

Bill B--"No thanks, I've just had one."

Sports

Last Saturday Mr. Fox, Albert Wendel, Dale Yocum, Dave Studebaker, Earl Blekking and Ralph Hanson were attendants at the Gateway classics meet at Clinton, Iowa. This meet sponsored by Clinton high school, is the biggest one in the middle west and the winner is usually considered the middle west interscholastic champion. Six records were equalled or established, though the weather was cold, windy and damp. Under better conditions, better times and distance would have resulted. Dave was entered in the broad jump and Albert in the half mile. Neither placed though both did their best. This meet was very fast and it is very hard to even place. Ralph was not entered because of a pulled tendon but undoubtedly would have played high for the best 100 time was 10.1. Ralph has done better than this several times.

Outstanding performances that the writer enjoyed were Denny's 15.3 time in winning the 120 high hurdles and Don Conihan of Oak Park's high jump of 6.3'. It was a pleasure to watch such winning performances. Though Franklin Grove didn't place at all it was a good meet to watch and a fine thing to be able to observe the perfect form of other winners and field men. We have learned a lot and will show you what we learned when the Green River meet comes around. We are not discouraged for rankin was the smallest school entered in competition with such schools as Rockford, Elmhurst, Davenport and Oak Park. Both men entered were juniors and will do much more next year. Tomorrow, four men are entered in the state district meet at Freeport. Dave in the broad jump, Albert in the half mile, Dale in the mile and Ralph in the 100 and 220. Chances are pretty good for several first and other places. The first two men in each event are eligible for the state meet at Urbana, the 15th and 16th, so possibly some men may go to Urbana. Ralph has a good chance to do this for he is counted high among the Illinois high school sprinters. Monahan of York, Kinet of Freeport, Elmhurst of Kankakee, Hirs of Oak Park and Hansen are considered among the leading men. Here's hoping.

Baseball

Tuesday afternoon Crestan defeated the Franklin team on the local field by a score of 9 to 5. Seven innings were played. Bernell Snyder pitched and Raymond Patterson caught. The game was interesting to watch and the spectators yelled as usual. A game with Steward was scheduled here Thursday but the results are not known.

Home Economics Dept.
The home management class has been studying different phases of interior planning of the home. Next week we will study interior decorating and each pupil will complete the planning of one particular home.

Clothing Class

The clothing class has started this week on their last projects which include make-over dresses, good silk dresses, banquet dresses and suits.

G. A. A.

The girls played soft ball Thursday. The four squads were divided into two teams. The Shooting Stars and T. N. T. were in one group and the Rumplesnitz and Whirlwinds were the other group. The lineups were as follows:

Rumplesnitz and Whirlwinds--Lucille Rhodes, c; Georgia Lahman, p; Mary Jean Miller, 1b; Joe Kelley, 2b; Helen Hawkins, 3b; Eleanor Yocum, rs; June Miller, ls; Margaret Elmen, rf; Georgia Peterman, cf; Ione Butterbaugh, lf; Roberta Kint, sub. Seven runs and 12 hits.

Shooting Stars and T. N. T.--Katharine Withey, c; Pauline Kelly, p; Lois Gatz, 1b; Betty Bettendorf, 2b; Mary Hall, 3b; Betty Heath, rs; Marie Black, ls; Josephine Miller, rf; Betty Wasson, cf; Darlene Buck, lf. Nine runs and 13 hits.

9:30 A. M. Sunday school. Our classes are taught by competent teachers who are very regular in their attendance. If every pupil was as regular in their attendance as the teachers are, we would have a much larger school even than we do have now which is very good. Then if each scholar would study their lesson it would help to make each class more interesting and do more good.

10:30 A. M. Morning services. Mother's Day will be observed with a very happy service. The choir will sing two beautiful anthems, "My Mother's Old Bible is True," and "Mother is Never Too Weary." Miss Mary Jean Miller will give a Mother's Day reading. The pastor will deliver a sermon on the subject, "Our Christian Mothers." Every mother's son and daughter is invited to this service. Everyone who ever had a mother ought to be present in tribute to motherhood.

7:00 P. M. Young People's Mother Day service. Miss Marie Black will lead the meeting on the subject, "The Golden Rule in the Home." There will be special musical selections and readings. The adult folks are invited and urged to attend this Mother's Day meeting which is an annual custom.

Three Carlinville Fugitives Caught
Santa Fe, N. M., May 8--(AP)--Three men who state police said admitted breaking jail two weeks ago at Carlinville, Ill., were held for safekeeping in the state penitentiary here today after Walter Langley, one of those arrested, declared:

"I'll never be taken back east to face those charges."

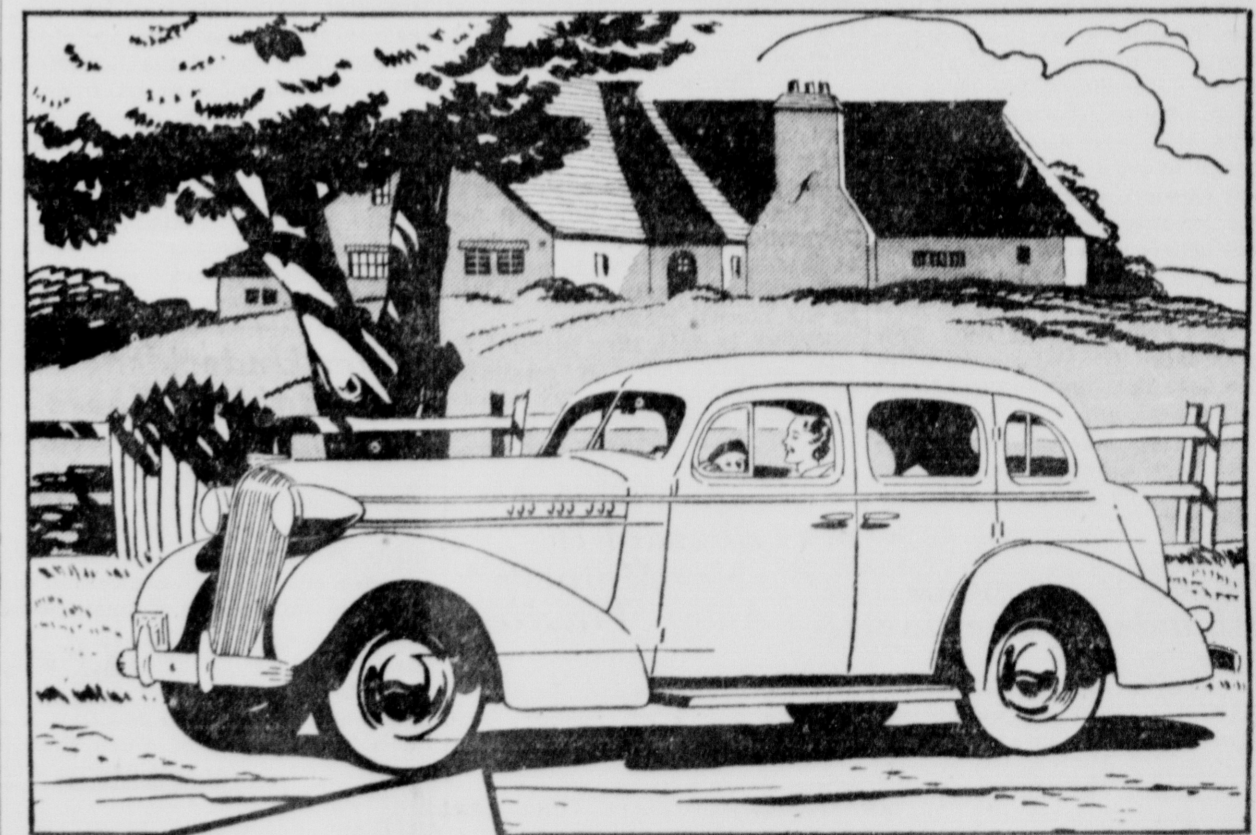

Capt. Roy Vermillion of the state police said the men identified themselves as Colman and Walter Langley and Ray Fainer and admitted they fled from jail after slugging a guard.

Capt. Vermillion said they carried newspaper clippings describing the activities of a gang charged with a series of robberies in Lima and Piqua, Ohio, and the slaying of an Indianapolis police-

“RUBBER STAMP”
HOUSE TO PASS RELIEF MONDAY

Opponents are Steam-rollered in All Their Efforts

Washington, May 9.—(AP)—First steps toward a 25 per cent cut in the PWA administrative staff were taken by Secretary Ickes today after the House failed to earmark any of the proposed $1,425,000,000 work relief appropriation for a new public works program.

An order directed PWA division heads both in Washington and the field to prepare lists of employees to be dropped, and at the same time forbade any further pay increases.

Officials explained that the order, which followed victory of administration forces over a House PWA bloc and paved the way for House passage on Monday of the deficiency bill containing the new PWA appropriation, would not be carried out immediately. The lists, which are to cover employees of both PWA and the PWA housing division—also left without further funds—are to be submitted immediately, however.

9,000 On Staff

The PWA administrative staff totals 9,000, including 3,000 in Washington. The housing division employs 1,000 persons.

After Monday's House vote, the deficiency bill with its relief issue will go to the Senate.

In rapid-fire action late yesterday, Republicans lost in efforts to substitute a system of Federal grants to states for PWA and a bloc led by Democrats was stymied in its drive to earmark $349,950,000 for Secretary Ickes PWA.

An amendment wanted by union labor passed. In a surprise move, the appropriations committee accepted and the House approved by a voice vote, an amendment by Rep. Connery (D-Mass.) requiring payment of prevailing wages on works progress administration projects throughout the country.

Some Aliens Barred

Another major battle was over employment of aliens on PWA projects. Finally the House adopted, 136 to 12, an amendment backed by both Republicans and Democrats to require the PWA to bar from its rolls aliens known to be in the country illegally.

Also approved without opposition was an amendment by Rep. Latham (D-Tex.) to permit persons who have not hitherto been on direct relief (dole) rolls to obtain work relief under the new funds.

Administrator Harry L. Hopkins had testified before the appropriations committee that 85 per cent of the PWA workers were taken off relief rolls, but that some change might have to be made in the regulations to permit taking in applicants not on those rolls.

The effort to scrap PWA was made in the form of an amendment by Rep. Taber (R-N. Y.) It would have set up a system of direct grants to states, with 25 per cent of the relief expenditures in each state coming from local contributions. Local non-partisan boards would handle the spending.

“Political Jobs”

Taber argued the legislation before the House was “not a relief bill, but a bill to continue political jobs.”

If the states are compelled to make appropriations, they will have some incentive to see that relief is properly administered,” he said.

Taber's amendment lost, 33 to 103. Rep. Beiler (D-N. Y.) and his “PWA bloc” were balked in their attempt to get a vote on an amendment earmarking $349,950,000 of the fund for Secretary Ickes, heavier construction projects. The move was opposed by President Roosevelt, who desires Hopkins' PWA to handle the bulk of the money. Rep. McCormack (D-Mass.), presiding, ruled that the Beiler amendment was not germane.

The relief appropriation is contained in a $2,364,000,000 deficiency bill, containing funds for other activities also.

Uncle Joe Cannon
Lauded Yesterday

Washington, May 9.—(AP)—Tales of the late “Uncle Joe” Cannon, of Danville, Ill., four times Speaker of the House of Representatives and for 46 years a member, were retold on the floor Thursday as members paused in the legislative duties to observe the 100th anniversary of his birth.

Members of both parties joined in eulogizing him. Representative Sabath (D-Ill.) dean of the house, praised Cannon as “one of the most remarkable men of the era” and recalled his “resourcefulness” in holding the house in session for three days and two nights in 1910 when a coalition was attempting to push through measures limiting the Speaker's power.

Representative Snell (R-N. Y.) likened Cannon to Abraham Lincoln. “For his courage dominated his character,” he told the members.

Motherhood and Wash Day Landed
Man Behind Bars

Effingham, Ill., May 9.—(AP)—Motherhood and wash day combined to land Roy Haney in jail today on vagrancy charges, with $500 bond the price of his freedom.

As told by Police Chief John I. Miller, the story goes like this: Haney lives at Miss Addie Pippin's house. He returned home on Wednesday night and found her dog Queenie surrounded by new born pups. He decided drowning was in order—but Miss Pippin objected.

Haney stormed out, snatched some of her laundry from the line and set fire to it.

Walking across the street to the home of his stepmother, he also stepped her line of washing and fed it to the blaze, only to discover several of his own shirts were in the blaze.

His stepmother incensed by a black eye Haney gave her in an argument over the shirts—summoned the chief.

Haney will be tried next month before County Judge Ray Stroud.

ADMINISTRATION
SEEKS TO STOP
TAX BILL FIGHT

Pressure Will be Put on Doubtful Senate
Committeemen

Washington, May 9.—(AP)—Administration leaders were fighting today to turn back opposition in the senate to President Roosevelt's proposal for taxing undistributed corporation profits.

Fate of the measure, and perhaps also of plans for adjoining congress before the June conventions, depended largely upon the outcome of week-end conferences among wavering Democratic members of the finance committee.

The doubtful Democrats were trying to work out some alternative tax plan that would raise the $620,000,000 of permanent revenue asked by Roosevelt without going into the fields of sales taxes or increased income taxes—levies which many members feel are too unpopular.

Backed By Couzens

In seeking an alternative they had the support of Sen. Couzens of Michigan, ranking Republican on the finance committee, and one of the few minority members administration forces had hoped to win over.

Couzens announced yesterday he was opposed to the bill because, he declared, “it is perfectly absurd to punish 97 per cent of the corporations, employing 48 per cent of the people, to get at some isolated cases” of tax evasion.

Despite Couzens' opposition and criticism of the plan from some Democrats on the committee, administration leaders were still standing by the bill which passed the house. They forecast that when the committee goes into executive session next week to frame a bill, government tax experts would answer many of the criticisms levelled at the measure in public hearings.

Opponents' Plans

Opponents of the undistributed profits tax had tentatively mapped out a course of action. First, they proposed to offer as a substitute for the house bill a program for increasing present corporate taxes from a top of 15 to 20 per cent, and making all dividends subject to the normal income tax.

Failing in this, they planned to seek a compromise by retaining the present corporate tax structure and superimposing on it moderate taxes on undistributed corporate profits.

May Blizzard In Rockies Maroons
Auto Travelers

Raton, N. M., May 9.—(AP)—More than 150 travelers were safe today from a sudden blizzard that marooned them a night and day on the rugged Raton Pass.

Snow and bitter cold continued on the lofty summit where rescuers cut through with snowplows late yesterday to bring out the stranded motorists, bus passengers and truckers.

Many of them were brought to hotels, homes and tourists camps here. Others were taken to Trinidad, Colo. on the other side of the 7,886-foot pass. Some of the group went nearly 24 hours without food, water or heat but the cold was not intense.

Two buses and a number of automobiles and trucks were abandoned in deep drifts. The highway was closed to general traffic and state police patrolled it through the night.

ETHIOPIA WILL ASK “JUSTICE”
AGAINST ITALY

Minister to France to Make Plea to Geneva
on Monday

Paris, May 9.—(AP)—Waldemar Mariani announced today, under instructions from the Ethiopian government, “new secret capital,” that he would go to Geneva Monday with an appeal for “justice against Italy.”

The Ethiopian minister to Paris and delegate to the League of Nations declined to disclose where the government was set up since that would be “bad military tactics, laying it open to attack.”

“It is true the government in some respects is disorganized, but it is nevertheless functioning,” he said.

“The Paris legation is receiving orders from a new capital where a large part of the cabinet and numerous functionaries are carrying on.”

Resistance Maintained

Mariani, as “official spokesman” for the government, declared Ethiopia's military resistance to the Italians would continue even though the Fascist forces have occupied Addis Ababa and declared their war concluded successfully.

“We will not surrender as long as a single inch of land is in the hands of Ethiopians, whence they can attack the invaders,” Mariani said.

“I shall tell the league the Ethiopian government is intact and functioning. It is in direct communication with what remains of the army, the legation throughout the world and all parts of Ethiopia not occupied by the Italians.

“The Italians really occupy only a minute part of the empire.”

TO PROCLAIM “EMPIRE”
Copyright, 1936.
By The Associated Press

Rome, May 9.—Premier Mussolini summoned Italy today to another great “adunata,” or semi-military mobilization, to hear him proclaim what would be done with conquered Ethiopia.

Il Duce's significant pronouncement will be made in a broadcast, starting at 10 P. M. (3 P. M., C. S. T.) when the Fascist Grand Council and the Council of Ministers will meet in quick succession at the Palazzo Venezia.

The two sessions will bring formal annexation of Ethiopia by Italy and a new definition of the Italian kingdom as an “empire,” well-informed sources said.

To add to the reasons for celebration was the official announcement that Italian troops had entered Harar shortly after noon yesterday, under the reconnaissance of 33 airplanes commanded by Gen. Ranza.

Found City Sacked

The soldiers found the city, second largest in Ethiopia, sacked by looters. Guards were immediately mounted over foreign consulates, and a detachment was started out to make contact with the Italian forces at Dire Dawa on the Addis Ababa-Djibouti railroad.

The government-controlled press prepared the populace for these announcements. Students cheered King Victor Emmanuel as emperor. Fascist headquarters sent Mussolini congratulations on the occupation of Addis Ababa, terming him “Founder of the Empire.”

Il Duce himself ordered foreign consular officers to issue Italian visas on passports of persons wishing to visit Ethiopia.

He directed also that Sunday—already being designated as “the first day of the empire”—should be celebrated as a national as well as a religious holiday.

FORMER CONVICT ADMITS MURDERS
OF 2 CHILDREN

Waterville, Me., May 9.—(AP)—James H. Folsom, 35-year-old Showhegan farm hand, who Sheriff Henry E. Burnell of Portland said confessed assaulting and killing two little girls, pointed out to police officers today the scene of one crime here and a previous one in nearby Fairfield.

Sergeant Harold K. Maguire of the Portland police, acting as a special investigator for the attorney general's office, said Folsom led the officers to an alder clump along Mecsassonskee stream, where the body of Mary Proulx, 7, was found Tuesday.

Maguire said he later pointed out where the body of Annie K. Knights, 12, of Fairfield was found. The Knights girl was strangled and criminally attacked Oct. 7, 1935. Her body was found in an alder clump, also.

Attorney General Clyde P. Chapman said Folsom had been formally charged with the Proulx girl's death. She was killed last Sunday.

Sheriff Burnell said Folsom, a paroled convict, had admitted both crimes. The girls were strangled, their wrists bound with twine and criminally attacked.

PARK TRAMMELL,
FLORIDA'S U. S.
SENATOR, DEAD

Cerebral Hemorrhage is Fatal to Naval Com.
Chairman Last Eve

Washington, May 9.—(AP)—Flags at half staff today told of the Capital's mourning for Park Trammell, 60, a Florida inlander who rose to the chairmanship of the senate naval affairs committee.

The senator died last night of a cerebral hemorrhage, which followed an attack of influenza complicated with pleurisy.

Members of his office staff attributed the severity of his attack of influenza to an attempt to remain on the senate floor long enough to vote for a proposal to include $12,000,000 in the war department appropriation bill for continuation of the Florida ship canal. However, he had to take to bed before the voting, in which the canal fund was beaten.

Fought League

The senator was seldom heard in senate debates, but colleagues recalled that soon after the war, he joined James A. Reed of Missouri in a vigorous fight against the League of Nations. Later he was prominent as the sponsor of the bill that authorized building the navy up to full strength allowed by the London treaty.

The junior Florida senator began his public career 35 years ago, when in his first year out of college he was elected mayor of his home city, Lakeland, Fla. Later he served in both branches of the Florida legislature, as state attorney general, and as governor for four years.

Never Beaten

Never defeated in an election, he was named United States senator in November, 1916, two months before the expiration of his term as governor.

Trammell was the fourth senate member of the 74th congress to die. The others were Bronson Cutting of New Mexico, Huey P. Long of Louisiana, and Thomas D. Schall of Minnesota.

His first wife, Mrs. Virginia Darby Trammell, died in 1922 and 12 years later he was married to Mrs. Louis Mesmer of Lakeland, who survives. No children were born of either union.

The transmitter is mounted on the handle bars and there is but one tuning point, which eliminates the tuning in on any other stations. The sending stations at Springfield and Chicago are expected to be ready to broadcast about June 1. Work is progressing on the district station east of Sterling, which is expected to be completed and ready for operation within 60 days.

Ten Killed, Clash
Of Troops, Rioters
Salonica, Greece

Athens, Greece, May 9.—(AP)—Ten persons were killed and an undetermined number injured when troops took over control of the city of Salonika today after a clash with striking tobacco workers.

An armored car was forced to shoot its way out of a mob during a demonstration of 6,000 employees.

The commander of the third army corps assumed authority for governing the city. The strike was reported spreading to other parts of Greece, including the cement works at Eleusis, 12 miles from Athens.

VOLIVA BANKRUPT

Chicago—A personal bankruptcy schedule showing assets of $1,200,000 and liabilities of $1,700,000 was filed in the federal court by Wilbur Glenn Voliva, religious overseer of Zion, Ill. He offered to compromise his obligations by turning over 6,000 parcels of land to the First National Bank of Waukegan, Ill., to be liquidated by three trust managers, one of whom would be himself.

TWO MET DEATH
IN ARKANSAS TORNADO SAT.

Horatio, Ark., May 9.—(AP)—tornado struck the Dilworth and Loan Oak communities five miles east of Horatio today, killing two persons, seriously injuring another and destroying fifteen farm homes.

Reports also reached here that the tornado winds had swept through nearby Omaha, Texas, at approximately the same time, seriously injuring two persons there, and causing property damage estimated at $5,000.

Those killed near Horatio were Mrs. Sid Orr, 44, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Tom Orr, 81, who were crushed to death in the debris of their home. A Mr. Orr, ill in the house, was gravely injured.

Lesser injuries were sustained by several other persons in the two communities.

The twister followed a path five miles long and about a quarter of a mile wide, destroying houses and leveling timber, fences and farm buildings. The Oakhill church, in the center of the area, was demolished.

Canzoneri Batters Jim McLarnin to Oblivion; 16,000 Howl With Joy

Wins All But Three Rounds At Garden Over Irishman

New York, May 9.—(AP)—So a good little man has no chance against a good big man? How little Tony Canzoneri must have howled at that one!

More than 16,000 fans saw the stocky king of the lightweights explode the age-old theory in Madison Square Garden last night and that many Irishmen and Italians can't possibly be wrong.

Rallying after a first round bombardment that all but blasted him into the fistie boneyard, Canzoneri, a 9 to 5 underdog in the betting, came back to give Jimmy McLarnin, once ruler of all the welters, one of the worst defeats in the Irishman's 12 years of brilliant ring campaigning.

After that hectic fight round, in which McLarnin seemed headed for an early knockout, it was mostly Canzoneri. Spotting the Celt six and one half pounds, Canzoneri won seven of the remaining nine rounds.

Punishes McLarnin
He punished McLarnin with a two-fisted attack to capture the second, third, fifth, sixth and seventh and all but had the game but tired Vancouver batter out on his feet in the ninth and tenth.

McLarnin took only the first, fourth and eighth.

A host of celebrities crowded the oven-like Garden to see the most spectacular duel two little fellows have waged in years.

The gate reached $85,763.50 and except for the Joe Louis-Paulino fight last December was the largest the Garden has drawn in more than four years.

After the bruising, speedy thrilling ten round display of glove swinging, the game but crushed McLarnin admitted it probably was the end of the trail for him.

"He's a grand fighter, that Tony," said Jimmy, as attendants massaged his badly swollen jaw. "I guess I ought to quit, at that. Fighting once a year is tough going."

Old Pop Foster, clucking about the battered Irishman like a mother hen, was even more emphatic.

Should Quit for Good
"He should quit for good," said Jimmy's manager, "I was against this fight from the start. Jimmy should have hung up the gloves after his last fight with Barney Ross."

Canzoneri, who escaped with nothing more serious than a bloody nose, said he was willing to tackle Lou Ambers for the lightweight championship as soon as promoters can bring them together.

"Jimmy hit me hard and hurt me lot in the first round," he said. "But when I saw I could take that I knew I would win, I knew I had taken all he had."

The only thing that resembled a knockdown came in the second when Canzoneri dropped McLarnin to one knee with a terrific right hander. Jimmy was up again before the count started.

PITCHERS NOT ABLE TO LAST ENTIRE GAME

Batters Make Life Miserable For The Hurlers

By ANDY CLARKE

Associated Press Sports Writer

Pitchers, durable pitchers who can start a game and finish it, are scarce around the major leagues these days.

The heavy bat-wielders are making life miserable for the men who toe the rubber, especially in the National circuit, and there have been some lengthy mound parades in the season's encounters thus far.

Out of eight pitchers who started in four games yesterday only one was on deck when the last man was out. Charley Ruffing went the distance for the Yankees who lost a 3-2 decision to the Athletics. Nine pitchers saw service as the Cardinals beat the Cubs 11-9. Five went to the hill as the Pirates beat the Reds 9-5, and six took turns in the box as the Senators downed the Red Sox 12-9.

Haven't Gone Distance

The totals show that out of 168 starts thus far in the National league season, only 61 times have the twirlers gone the distance. The worst record is shown by the Boston Bees who in 20 games have seen their pitcher complete his chore only three times. Danny McFadden pitched all three of these games. Giant pitchers have completed six of their 19 starts, with Carl Hubbell going the distance three times, while Phillies pitchers have fallen by the wayside in 20 out of 22 games. The Cards have the best record with 12 of their 19 starting hurlers seeing the job through.

The lowly St. Louis Browns have the worst record in the American circuit with only three of the starters in 21 games staying the distance while the Red Sox top the league with 13 out of 23 games worked by one pitcher. Lefty Grove having gone the route 77 times in 170 starts in this circuit.

The Cards replaced the Cubs in first place in the National league by yesterday's free-hitting conquest. Johnny Mize walloped a brace of homers and a single while Joe Medwick drove in five tallies with a homer and two singles. The Cubs made a late game rally that induced Manager Frankie Frisch to send the redoubtable Dizzy Dean into action, the last of four pitchers the Cards used against five Cubs flingers.

OLYMPIC FINAL ROUNDS FACING BOXERS MAY 20

Eight Will Be Chosen For Trip To Berlin This Summer

Chicago, May 9.—(AP)—With the hopes of carrying the Stars and Stripes in Berlin this summer burning in their hearts, 16 punchers had emerged today from the fiercest fights of their lives—the semi-finals for the United States Olympic boxing team.

The sweet 16 last night fought their way into the finals which will be staged in the Chicago Stadium May 20 to decide the makeup of Uncle Sam's 1936 team of boxers.

The championship matches in the eight weight divisions are: 112 pounds: Jimmy Urso, Detroit, vs. Louis Laurie, Cleveland, O.

118 pounds: Johnny Brown, Chicago, vs. Jackie Wilson, Cleveland. 126 pounds: Ted Kara, Cleveland vs. Joey Church, Batavia, N. Y.

135 pounds: Andy Scrivani, Chicago, vs. Thomas Tedesco, Buffalo, N. Y.

147 pounds: Chester Rutel, Chicago, vs. Howell King, Chicago. 160 pounds: Jimmy Clark, Jamestown, N. Y., vs. Ord Flinn, Syracuse University.

175 pounds: Carl Vinciguerra, Creighton University, vs. William Townsend, United States Army, Hawaii.

Battles Were Killers.

The battles fought last night were killers with Frank Nelson, a bootblack in a Davenport, Iowa, barber shop, producing the biggest upset. Nelson, unsung and unheralded, defeated Milton Shivers, a Detroit Negro and a Golden Gloves middleweight champion, in a savage contest. Later Nelson dropped a heart-breaking decision to Jimmy Clark, a Negro sharpshooter from Jamestown, N. Y., but he was chosen an alternate because of his sensational showing.

The 20-year-old Jewish lad from Washington, D. C., Lou Gevinson, was selected as a featherweight alternate although he lost his semi-final bout to Ted Kara of Cleveland, Chicago Golden Gloves champion. Previous to this defeat Gevinson had scored sensational knockouts over two opponents.

The United States army force at Hawaii, after dropping ten straight fights, squeezed into the finals with William Townsend, winner of two heavyweight battles, as their representative.

Omaha Winner

Kempton Park, Eng., May 9.—(AP)—Omaha, William Woodward's four-year-old chestnut colt, signaled his debut on English turf today by winning the Victor Wild Stakes at 1½ miles.

Omaha, America's three-year-old champion last year when he won the Kentucky Derby, Preakness, Belmont Stakes and Arlington Classic, was the 4 to 5 choice to win his first race over the English turf.

He was one and one-half lengths in front of Mrs. MacDonald Buchanan's Montrose with Lady Abergeenny's Lohau another five lengths back.

DISTRICT TRACK MEETS TODAY IN SIXTEEN CITIES

Rockford Opens Its Defense Of State Track Crown

Chicago, May 9.—(AP)—With new records certain to be established in at least two events, high school track athletes compete in 16 district qualifying meets throughout the state today for the right to enter the annual state championships to be held May 15 and 16 at the University of Illinois.

District meets go on at Bridgeport, Evanston, Freeport, Granite City, Jacksonville, Kankakee, Maywood, Moline, Monmouth, Monticello, Ottawa, Pekin, West Frankfort, Chicago and Carbondale.

The Mattoon meet was held yesterday, Shelbyville piling up 27 points to win the championship. Mattoon was second with 24. The winners qualified six men for the Champaign meet, Mattoon, 7, Casey 4, Pana 2, Paris 4, Rosamond 2, and Martinsville, Taylorville, Villa Grove, Arthur, Oakland, Charleston, Westfield, Moweaqua and Stonington one each.

New records will be made, both in the district and state meets, in the hurdle events. The height of the 120-yard hurdle standards has been changed from 42 inches to 39, and the distance of the low hurdle race has been decreased from 220 yards to 200.

Winners of track events and those finishing second will qualify for the state championships. In field events, any entry equaling or bettering an arbitrary set of standards set up by the state association may compete in the state meet regardless of whether he places first or second in the district meet.

Rockford is the defending state champion.

BRUBAKER NEAR BATTING LEAD

Former Kansas City Player Now Plays With Pirates

New York, May 9.—(AP)—Bill Brubaker, a kid from Hollywood who played ball for Kansas City last season and is now at third base for the Pirates, and Billy Sullivan of the Cleveland Indians took impressive strides this past week toward the loop of the major league batting columns.

Young Brubaker is not listed in the figures last week at this time, but he has been playing regularly at the hot corner for the Pirates and he has been doing very well. He is still a little back of Bill Terry, who has an average of .556 through his fine play at the start and his recent illness, but his average of .467 stands above the rest.

Sullivan was at the top of the figures last week, but he had not played enough to be included. This week, however, he proved that his earlier record was no fluke.

The figures on the first 10 batters in each league follows:

NATIONAL LEAGUE	AB	R	H	Pct.
Terry, Giants	27	4	15	.556
Brubaker, Pirates	30	5	14	.468

Battling Bellhop Wins Decision In Match With Risko

San Francisco, May 9.—(AP)—Hard-punching Freddie Apostoli, San Francisco's battling bellhop, was a long step closer to his long-awaited victory over world's champion Eddie (Babe) Risko by a ten-round decision.

Apostoli, a 2 to 1 favorite, had Risko on the defense over most of the route in their one-sided bout, and at the end was eight of the rounds. Risko, whose title was not at stake, was awarded the ninth with the second stanza even.

The San Francisco, National amateur middleweight champion two years ago, weighed 162, and Risko a pound less.

Lively Corpse

San Mateo, Calif., May 9.—(AP)—Ralph Neves, 19-year-old jockey who was believed fatally hurt in a spill on the Bay Meadows track yesterday insisted today he was able to ride his five mounts as scheduled.

When Fannikins, with Neves up, ran up on horses in front and dropped to her knees the jockey fell and lay motionless after a half-dozen horses raced past.

Within 20 minutes after receiving an adrenalin injection at the track hospital, the jockey was sitting up and demanding to ride his remaining races.

ROCKFORD TO DEFEND TITLE WON 8 YEARS

Dixon, Freeport Are Most Likely To Threaten It

Dixon high school is only one of twenty-four schools participating in the Freeport sectional track and field meet today that began at 10 A. M. and is continuing all afternoon. Rockford is defending its sectional title won the past eight years in a row.

Schools entered in the big affair are Rockford and Freeport of the Big Seven conference, Belvidere, Rochelle of the North Central Illinois league, Amboy, Mt. Morris and Oregon of the Rock River Valley loop, and Rockford, Hallem, Mt. Carroll, Pecatonica, Stockton, Durand, Chadwick, Franklin Grove, Shannon, Winnebago, Orangeville, Lanark and a few other small schools.

Rabs Miss Packard
Rockford has won the sectional meet for the past eight years in a row. This spring Dixon and Freeport were picked by sports experts as schools likely to offer Rockford its most serious competition.

The Rab school is without the services of Bob Packard, stellar dash man, who was graduated last spring, and will miss him extremely when Rube Thompson of Dixon starts his 100 yard and 220 yard sprints.

The local squad left Dixon this morning at 8:30 o'clock and Coach L. E. Sharpe followed around noon with another load of boys.

Winners at the sectional will be entitled to compete in the Illinois high school state track and field meet to be held in Champaign at the University of Illinois, Friday and Saturday, May 15 and 16. Appropriate ribbons, medals, and trophies will be awarded individual and team winners today at the Freeport meet.

Miss Lauris Cornish who is employed at the Jay Mittan home, spent Sunday at home with her mother, Mrs. Johnson.

Dinner guests of Mrs. Johnson Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Vincent of West Brooklyn, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Aughenbaugh of Paw Paw and callers in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Short and Miss Eliza Rasmussen of Compton.

Frank Ambler and family, Mrs. Anna Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Simpson and family, Robert Simpson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hoeller, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Meriman and son Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Politsch and family, Edgar Truckenbrod and wife, Helen Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Foster and baby, Mr. and Mrs. John Pife, Mr. and Mrs. Mert Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Erlenbach were among a party of more than 40 relatives and friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Truckenbrod who gathered at their new home here Sunday and celebrated the occasion. When the family returned from church, they found that the home had been taken over by the company and the occasion was a complete surprise. The self-invited guests brought baskets of choice dishes and all did justice to the sumptuous dinner. The afternoon was spent in visiting. The Truckenbrods recently purchased the Bartow home in the southwest part of town and have remodeled and redecorated it, making a very modern and comfortable home.

At Oregon Meeting
Twenty-five Scout leaders attended a meeting of the Blackhawk Area executive board held in Oregon, Wednesday night. The camp committee was authorized to proceed with plans for obtaining a camp site in Lee and Ogle counties for troop camping under the supervision of the council in July or August. Lost Nation and the wild country surrounding it were considered likely sites. The activities committee was authorized to set up plans for a district and council swimming meet, the latter to be held the last week in July with the site as yet undetermined. It was decided that any Scout in the event must be registered as a Scout in the competing troop at least 30 days in advance of the meet. Each district was authorized to select two men on the National Jamboree committee to handle details of Jamboree policies for the 1937 conclave.

Nominations committees were appointed consisting of the six vice-presidents of the Blackhawk Council. The camp committee was also given authority to use Camp Rotary near New Milford for the Scout camp the week of August 8 to 15.

Boy Scout News
Attention was called this morning to the annual Scout camp at Camp Rotary near New Milford, Ill., which will be held this year the week of August 8 to 15. The camp will be in charge of A. A. Stocker, Scout executive of the Blackhawk Council; Harold G. Boltz, camp director; Herman Brandmiller, business director; R. L. Warren, Scoutcraft and handicraft director, and qualified Scouters and Eagle Scouters.

Among the annual features of Camp Rotary which usually climaxes a summer of camporees for troops of the various counties in the Blackhawk Area, are Scoutcraft, handicraft, camp fires, treasure hunts, nature study, and sports. Boys are continually under the surveillance of these trained leaders, partake of excellent food, receive the attention of qualified health and first aid experts if necessary and while in the water, are under the direction of Red Cross life savers in a clean, sanitary and modern pool replete with a filtering and chlorinating system. Camporee manuals for the use of Scoutmasters this summer were mailed to all Lee and Ogle county Scoutmasters from the field executive's offices this week. They explain the purposes of summer camporees, organization of the camporees, equipment necessary, type of food to use, suggested menus, recipes, suggested camp set-ups, projects, and general common sense rules.

POLO—The Friendship Circle of the Church of the Brethren met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emerson Witmer with Mrs. Glen Stern as assistant hostess. There were 30 members present. Plans were made for the mother and daughter banquet to be held at the church next Thursday evening. The subject of the program was "Women in Womanhood." Mrs. Fred Miller had charge of the singing which was in keeping with Mother's Day. Mrs. Orville West discussed the characters, Hannah and Bethesda and Mrs. Clinton Stauffer discussed Eunice and the Mother of James and John. Mrs. R. O. Blough sang a solo after which there was an exchange of flowers, plants and seeds. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Theresa Fry entertained with two tables of bridge at her home three miles south of Polo Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Loren Landis received high score and Miss Eileen Paul received low score. As the guests assembled in the living room and were seated at the table, they found favors of small aeroplanes. A large aeroplane hung close to the table of blue and silver, with streamers to the smaller planes. A double heart hung above the large plane, in which appeared the announcement of the approaching marriage of the hostess and Kenneth M. Landis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Landis of Sterling. The centerpiece on the table was a beautiful array of sweet peas and snapdragons.
Charles Cavanaugh who was called here by the death of his sister, Miss Gertrude, left Friday morning for his home in Worland, Wyo.
Mrs. Robert Beard of Chicago is a guest in the George Duffey home. Mr. Beard will spend the week end here and Mrs. Beard will return with him.

"BILLY SUNDAY," OLDEST ELEPHANT ON EARTH, COMING

Three herds of performing elephants with Seils-Sterling 4-Ring Circus coming to Dixon, Sunday, May 17th, afternoon and night.

The oldest known living elephant in America is "Billy Sunday"—the property of the Seils-Sterling 4-Ring Circus.

This old elephant is as kind as a small kitten and as harmless. Children often lead Billy around the playgrounds and are permitted to play with him. Some afternoon, the keepers let the little ones ride on Billy's back. This is usually done after the matinee. Billy has traveled with shows in this country for over 75 years and has been exhibited to more people than any other living animal. Your father and mother when they were small children undoubtedly fed this old animal and there is no doubt. Billy is the first elephant your parents ever saw. How would it feel for you to feed the elephant your grandfather fed peanuts when he was a little boy. Ask any of the attendants for old Billy and he will be pointed out.

Billy is really showing his age now—there is no telling how old he is, probably 300 or 400 years old, but he is still lively enough to go from the cars to the show grounds and keep up with the balance of the herd.

The "Donzelle Sensation," the greatest thriller of all time, the outstanding feature, an engagement extraordinary, for this season, only, and can be seen only with Seils-Sterling 4-Ring Circus, presenting their daring and graceful achievement, "The Plunge of Death" positively at both afternoon and night performances.

FOLLY and FAREWELL

BEGIN HERE TODAY
LINDA BOURNE, 20 years old, pretty, is left almost penniless by the sudden death of her father.
PETER GARDINER, newspaper reporter, helps her get a job with a society news. Linda is in love with DIX CARTER, but he goes abroad to study singing. When Peter asks Linda to marry him she agrees, but postpones the wedding.
HONEY HARMON, film star, comes to Newtown, making a "personal appearance" tour, which is a scenario written by Linda. Later Linda goes to Hollywood and, by expressing ideas that are really Peter's, acquires a reputation for being able to discover new stars. Soon she is a celebrity.
At a party given by Honey Harmon, Linda meets BASIL THORNE, director. Attracted by him at first, she later avoids him.
Dix Carter comes to Hollywood to get into films as an actor. Linda tries to help him, but he hates her, however, when he asks her to introduce him to Basil Thorne. At last, she agrees.
NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XVI

LINDA hated herself when she had hung up after making an engagement to dine with Basil Thorne the next night but one. This time she didn't agree to meet him at his home. They were dining at the Continental. She dreaded it and planned her evening.

And she came very near to disliking Dix. She knew that he had deliberately planned to have her telephone Thorne. She excused him because she knew how badly he wanted to get his chance.

She prepared herself for that night, knew the note that she was going to strike and hold. Nevertheless she found herself nervous, not with anticipation such as she had felt the last time she had an engagement with the director, but with fear that she could not be able to carry it off.

But she did. She wasn't flirtatious, but she was charming, flattering, and if her manner didn't say yes, it didn't say no.

Thorne was sincerely impressed with Linda. He felt that he had made a blunder and was grateful that it was not an unforgivable one. He was flattered that she had finally called him. He rearranged his tactics, adjusted his intentions, was suave, courteous, and charming. They dined and danced and talked of pictures in the making. Linda was careful not to mention Dix Carter's name.

THORNE took her home, kissed her hand gallantly, and asked if he might see her the next day. Linda refused. When he telephoned the next day and she thanked him for what was practically a blanket of white violets, she said she would have cocktails with him the following Saturday.

Linda was mistress of the situation. She knew it couldn't go on forever, but she banked on Thorne's acceptance of the genre of their companionship she had created. As a matter of fact, he was rather enjoying it. Linda was she had never expected the idea would come from him.

She appeared to be thinking it over. "How did you know he was a singer?" she asked after a while. "I didn't," he answered. "Is he?" "Yes, Baritone and sweet—voice. I mean. He's done some excellent things in England. I think you might be interested to see and hear him."

"Give him a card and he can see me at the studio," Thorne called for his check.

That wasn't what Linda wanted.

And Honer had "answered" him? Well, why not? Linda shrugged her shoulders in their beautiful white tailored coat. Did she expect to tie every man to her apron string? She certainly wasn't that kind of a girl, she hoped.

She unpinned the violet corsage on her coat and left it in the dressing room. Violets always reminded her of Pete Gardiner and the first time he had brought them to her.

News of The Past Week

Associated Press Summarizes Outstanding Events of the Past Seven Days

—Colonial Conquest—

One of Europe's three dictatorships succeeded this week in breaking the virtual monopoly of control upon Africa which England and France have enjoyed since the close of the Great War.

Apart from the diplomatic pot-pourri created by Italy's occupation of Addis Ababa, capital of the absolute monarchy of Ethiopia, was the fact that Premier Mussolini had added to his colonial domains on the dark continent an area of 350,000 square miles, with an estimated population of 10,000,000.

Britain was mortified by a diplomatic defeat. France was indignant when Italy seized control of most of the French-owned Addis Ababa-Djibouti Railway. The more stalwart states of the League of Nations talked of revamping the organization's structure. The lesser states expressed a lack of faith in the theory of collective security.

But the fact remained that another nation had obtained a more secure foothold on a continent to which Europe is turning increasing attention as an area of potential markets and for colonization purposes. Japan pursues a policy of "Asia for Asiatics; alone of the great continents, Africa remains to occidentals for both trade and colonization, and as a source of raw materials.

—Unseated Monarch—

Victory was sudden, to the surprise of many military experts. Ethiopia's defense collapsed. Emperor Haile Selassie fled to Haifa, Palestine. Defenseless, in a state of anarchy, Addis Ababa was ravaged by riots and fire. Unofficial estimates had 500 dead in the disorders. The wife of an American missionary was killed.

The resident United States minister, Cornelius Van H. Engert, wire-lessly for help as he held marauders at bay with gunfire. In the Piazza Venezia, at Rome, thick-set, black-shirted Mussolini was acclaimed by Italians heads with victory. Italy, they said, had captured not only Addis Ababa but Geneva as well. Britain's Downing Street stood at a crossroads of foreign policy. Cape to Cairo as a legendary British phrase had a less confident timbre.

—California Ballots—

The Democratic high command was jubilant this week. On the heels of a Democratic vote a third greater than the Republican in the California presidential preference primary, the party claimed its largest nationwide registration in history.

President Roosevelt picked up 90 national convention votes in California, Alabama, Maryland, and South Dakota, but his critics made much of what they termed the "protest vote" against him in Maryland where Col. Henry Breckinridge opposed him. There the President's majority was better than 3 to 1.

The California primary brought to a head a Republican intra-party squabble for control. The "regular" organization triumphed over a slate pledged to Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas and backed by William Randolph Hearst, the publisher, and Gov. Frank Merriam. Democratic regulars swamped Upton Sinclair's production-for-use and the McGroarty Townsendite slates.

Unofficial returns indicated a South Dakota victory for Landon over Borah of Idaho in their first farm belt fight for delegates. At Topeka the Kansas governor attacked the New Deal as being a "wasteful, shipshod, incompetent, happy-go-lucky administration."

—Ninth Inning Argument—

Racing the calendar against political convention time, Congress this week approached a climax in a tussle over relief.

The Roosevelt $1,500,000,000 relief bill was reported favorably to the House for floor argument amid a growing feud between Interior Secretary Ickes and Relief Administrator Hopkins over the spending of relief funds. Republicans demanded direct grants to states for relief purposes to take such matters "out of politics." A House bloc sought to earmark several hundred thousand dollars of the sum for PWA projects over the President's objections.

The power of the administration's voice on Capitol Hill was no better exemplified than by the crux of the squabble. In quick order the House voted down grants to states and stymied the drive to earmark $700,000,000 of the total for WPA. A final vote, sending the appropriation to the Senate, probably will be reached Monday.

In an effort to lighten the relief burden, the President began a search for jobs for the unemployed through expansion of certain industries. He conferred with a number of industrial leaders.

Criticism by business of the proposed corporation surplus tax rose in crescendo before a Senate committee. One group attacked it as a further step toward "government regulation and regimentation of business." Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, in turn, charged business with deliberately delaying action on the measure by a widespread propaganda campaign.

—Double Bullseye—

Ginger Rogers and her husband, Lew Ayres, both of the screen, agreed to an "amicable separation." Freakish weather visited a tornado on Oklahoma; a blizzard struck southern Colorado and northern New Mexico; a heat wave swept from the Mississippi valley to the Atlantic seaboard.

In Toledo, O., G-men nabbed "Public Enemy" Harry Campbell, pal of the captured Alvin Karpis; in San Francisco they collected William Mahan, wanted for the Weyerhaeuser kidnapping.

Some Harvard Lampoon editors nailed the Soviet emblem to the Supreme Court's flagstaff in Washington.

Germany's new Zeppelin, the "Hindenburg," blazed a new commercial trail between Friedrichshafen and Lakehurst, N. J.

Spring rains soaked the midwest's "dust bowl."

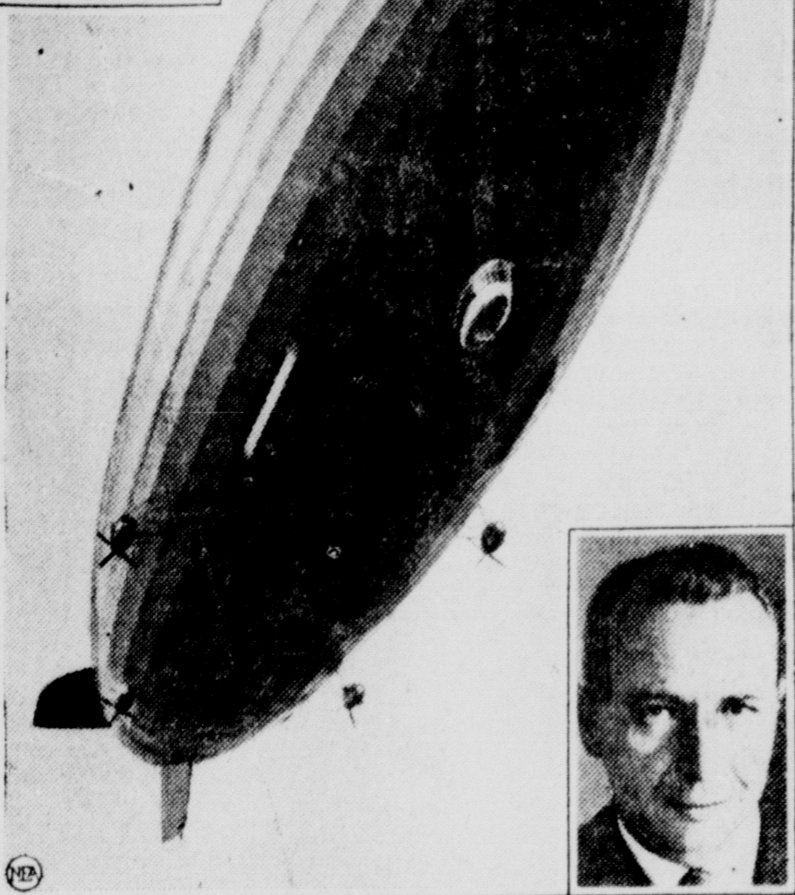

Greta Garbo, back from Sweden, granted a monosyllabic interview—her first.

The general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, meeting in Columbus, O., adopted a plan for union with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South and the Methodist Protestant Church.

The second ballot of the French elections emphasized the previous victory of the left parties; commentators said it augured well for peace and disarmament.

The Iowa Supreme Court wiped out charges of graft and official corruption against 31 persons 24 hours after the Cedar Rapids Gazette won a Pulitzer prize for meri-Colossus on First Visit to U. S.

On its maiden voyage over the North Atlantic from Europe, with Lakehurst, N. J., as its destination, the Hindenburg, above, Germany's colossus of the air, made no attempt to establish a record. Ernest Lehmann, lower right, preferred to sacrifice speed in order to give cities along the Atlantic seaboard a view of the great ship in flight during daylight hours.

ROCHELLE NEWS

Rochelle.—The International Review was presented by the Rochelle elementary schools at the Rochelle township high school, Friday evening, May 8th at 7:30 P. M.

One of the seven cardinal principles of education is good health. Without good health, academic training falls far short of achieving the desired objectives. The physical education curriculum in the Rochelle elementary schools considers much more than mere physical drills and exercises. Under a specially trained director the work in physical education is co-ordinated with the teaching of health and proper health standards. A game program to teach wholesome leisure time activities as well as to develop high standards of sportsmanship and leadership, is a part of the work of this department. Children are taught to respect their bodies and to learn how to take care of them. This is one of the important functions of the public school for the best interests of the state demands a citizenship that is strong, virile, and healthy.

Since ancient times, physical education formed one of the most important branches of study for the youth of every country.

It might be traced in early times from the Doric or Spartan type of formal training for strict discipline, to the Ionic or Athenian theory of individual development. The United States has been influenced by several systems from the older countries, but gradually is developing its own physical curriculum which seeks a strike a rational balance between the formal and the informal program.

In Rochelle, we are interested in a type of work that aims at the development of happy, healthy children through a balanced curriculum of physical education.

FATIGUE

Fatigue is one of the most common complaints voiced by the patient facing his doctor. He does not always name it fatigue. He may call it tiredness or lack of energy, or easy exhaustion.

Of necessity the physician faced with such a complaint must assume the possible existence of an organic and pathologic condition. Fatigue is characteristic of many diseases, including diabetes, tuberculosis and malignant growths.

But comparatively few of the patients complaining of chronic fatigue suffer from any serious disease. Most of them can be diagnosed as simply "bored." Yet, this diagnosis must not be taken as a challenge to the patient's honesty or to his moral or psychological integrity.

If fatigue be defined as an incapacity to sustain exertion, the patient's complaint is honest enough in that he truthfully does find himself tired, thereby necessitating physiologically adequate periods of rest, does not of itself produce the kind of fatigue which brings the patient to his doctor. Where hard work does effect such fatigue, there is usually associated with it some condition of mental conflict. Psychologist and psychiatrist know that fatigue is a common defense against anxiety and a frequent excuse for failing to undertake responsibilities which are menacing or "beyond" the individual.

The fact that individuals can sustain long periods of activity, even trying activity, under circumstances which are pleasant and stimulating, or under emergencies, shows that fatigue as such is a relative condition. In no small measure one's capacity to resist fatigue, as revealed by the enthusiastic young athlete, is bound up with the willingness to push oneself to the last degree.

In many instances, therefore, the fatigue complained of is emotional rather than physical in origin and naturally must be dealt with along such lines.

The number designating the size of a hat is obtained by adding the length and width of the crown, in inches, and dividing the result by two.

OBITUARY

CLAYTON CAMPBELL
(Contributed)

Clayton Campbell, the son of Marietta and Mark Campbell, was born May 5, 1878 near the Mound, Ogle county, and passed away May 1, 1936 at 5 A. M. at the Katherine Shaw Bethel hospital in Dixon, at the age of 57 years, 11 months and 25 days. He spent his boyhood in and around Waukegan, coming to Dixon as a young man. He was united in marriage to Marcella Kelly, Oct. 12, 1904. To this union four children were born: Marcella, John and Edward, one child, James, dying in infancy.

He spent his entire life in this community where he was well known as a cement contractor. His death was very sudden coming as a shock to his family and many friends. He was a member of the Dixon lodge, No. 779, B. P. O. Elks. He is survived by his widow, daughter, Mrs. Frank McClanahan and two sons, John and Edward. Two grandchildren, Shirley McClanahan and Alice Marie Campbell, one brother, Rufus who preceded him in death and one sister, Dena Campbell of Mobile, Ala. Funeral services were held Monday at 10 A. M. at the home of William Chiverton on East Second street. Services at the grave in Oakwood cemetery were in charge of officers and members of the lodge of Elks.

Monmouth Man Held as HOLC Bond Thief

Battle Creek, Mich., May 8.—(AP)—Lawrence Clark, 32, Monmouth, Ill., was held by police today in connection with the reported theft of $250 in HOLC bonds at Monmouth, Ill., last winter.

Police said a jeweler had told them he accepted the bonds in payment for two diamond rings purchased by Clark. H. D. Lewis, Warren county state's attorney, and Frank G. Hill, sheriff, came here yesterday from Illinois in connection with the investigation.

The termite queen is a giantess compared to other members of her kingdom. As she lies helplessly in her royal chamber, she is attended constantly by thousands of workers which carry out the eggs, and feed and cleanse her, while soldier termites stand guard.

These NEW Air Conditioned ICE Refrigerators will give you a NEW Idea of Refrigeration and Food Protection

Beauty, of course, is essential. The ladies insist on it and these new refrigerators certainly have it. But they have much more than lasting beauty. They are super-insulated to save ice and maintain constant cold.

However, "Cold Alone Is Not Enough," and so these new air-conditioned ice refrigerators are built to provide a constant circulation of moisture laden air.

This means fresh juicy meats,—crisp vegetables,—full flavored food.

In these new refrigerators you can make all the crystal clear, tasteless ice cubes you need in 5 minutes—that means properly cooled beverages.

These refrigerators cost only 1/2 to 2/3 of what you would expect to pay.

They give you the positive maximum in refrigeration at absolute minimum cost.

Man to Man A New Air - Conditioned Ice Refrigerator Meets Any Man's Requirements.
